BINGHAMTON DISTRICT.

One year ago I was assigned to this field of labor. I found the district thoroughly organized for efficient work, and in an excellent spiritual condition.

I have not been absent from the district a single Sabbath during the year; there has not been a day, as far as my health is concerned, that I have not been permitted to do full work for the Church, for which I am devoutly grateful to the Father of all blessings. My intercourse with pastors and people has, without a single exception, been of the most cordial and friendly character. My purpose has been to look after all the interests of the work committed to my care.

To aid me in this work I have had the faithful co-operation of some of the most earnest and reliable ministers of the Church of God. Not one has failed to respond to any demand; none have shirked responsibilities. For this I desire to express my appreciation, and would accord to them their full share in any success achieved. Amid exposure and toil, the ministers have been preserved in remarkably good health during the year, with the exception of Brother I. F. Jones, who in the early fall was taken seriously ill. We thought his time of toil was over, and the day of rest at hand; but a gracious Providence has spared him to the Church and to the ministry, for which we rejoice. And Brother A. C. Sperry, an old and useful member of this body, has been feeble during the entire year; by long and faithful service is literally worn out, and feels compelled to ask the Conference for a superannuated relation; but he is cheerful and happy, contented to stay or ready to go.

It would be gratifying to me to give in detail an account of each man's work for the year—and many are worthy of special notice—but this I must omit, as it would make my paper too long, and in view of the itemized report required from each pastor, which will appear elsewhere, it is unnecessary.

The drought of early spring, the abundance of fall rains, and the many unpleasant Sabbaths have embarrassed our work in the rural sections; but the pastors, comprehending the situation, have devoted themselves most zealously and untiringly to the task assigned them, so that if we have failed to reach the point hoped for, we think the reports will be equal to last year, if not in advance.

Last year my predecessor reported 59 churches on the district, and completing what was then contemplated or begun, we have three new churches, which have been dedicated and their indebtedness provided for. They are located at Dalton, on the Factoryville charge, at East Rush, on the Auburn charge, and at Ketchumville, on the Maine charge. They are of modern style, neat and tasty, and with capacity and conveniences suitable to the society and community where they are located. They have each been favored with a gracious revival, embracing some of the leading families of the community. Factoryville has paid $1000 of its old debts. The society at Susquehanna has expended over $4000 in enlarging and improving their church, making it practically new. Special services followed the re-opening, resulting in the quickening of the Church and conversion of sinners.

The audience room of the church at Great Bend has been greatly improved by new carpets, paint and fresco, making it pleasant and attractive.

At West Nicholson there have been revivals at almost every point on the circuit. They have repaired the parsonage, and secured a location for a new church at Union, and have nearly enough subscribed to build it.

At Rush there has been an excellent revival, and the church and parsonage repaired.

Auburn Centre charge has enjoyed uninterrupted prosperity during the year—an increase of Church papers taken, Sunday-school doubled, social meetings full, and a large number of conversions, representing all ages.

Lanesboro charge has secured a lot for building a new church at Stevon's Point.

There have been revivals at Jackson, Montrose, Vestal, Little Meadows, Union, Harford, and additions to the Church at each point.

South Gibson, on the Nicholson charge, has been blessed with quite an extensive revival. This is a laborious field, requiring the pastor to travel twelve miles and hold three full services each Sabbath; too much for any man. Brother Wilbur, the pastor, is still alive, and doing good work, though closing his second year.

The pastor and trustees of Springville charge have purchased several acres of land, on which is a house suitable for a parsonage, with a barn; also providing a very desirable location for a church.

Good work has been done on the Hawleyton charge, in conversions, paying up old debts of long standing, and repairing the church at Conklin Forks.

A rain of righteousness has fallen on the sterile and rugged soil of New Milford, resulting in the quickening of the Church, and in the awakening and conversion of souls, including all classes.

Methodism of Binghamton was never in a more prosperous condition. Pastors and churches are all united. Centennary, the mother Church, is rejoicing in the fact that the last dollar of indebtedness is paid; church and parsonage are free from all encumbrance; they have enjoyed a precious revival of religion and a large accession to the Church. Tabernacle has paid an old debt, $8000. By the energy and foresight of the pastor a lot has been secured, society incorporated according to law, ready for a new church at Lestershire, a growing suburb west of Binghamton. Also a lot has been purchased on Clinton street for a mission chapel to cost $1500; they expect to build during the summer. The probationers are 95. The benevolent collections will be in advance of last year. Paid to the Methodist Hospital, Brooklyn, $366. Chenango Street Church has enjoyed a year of prosperity. Its membership has been materially increased, both by letter and conversion, and their new edifice promises soon to be too small for their growing Church and congregation. The High Street Church is spiritual and active, and is having a moderate growth; but I am satisfied that its prosperity is greatly retarded by the want of a larger and better edifice, with conveniences such as that part of the city and the success of the Church require; and if the plan and purpose of the pastor and a large majority of the Church and congregation are realized, this great need will soon be supplied.

Other charges and pastors on the district are entitled to great credit, that amid trying and embarrassing circumstances have not suffered the work to decline.

Our Sunday Schools are generally organized into missionary societies, and seem to be doing good work, and with one or two exceptions are using our Church helps.

We held two camp meetings during the month of August. The order at both was perhaps all that could be desired. Though the meeting at Carmel Grove, in the northern part of the district, was not all we could hope for, yet it was far from being a failure, as those of the Church who were present were greatly benefited, and quite a goodly number were reclaimed and converted. At Dimock, in the southern section of the district, the attendance was large from the first service. Several new cottages had been built during the year, and old ones improved. Among the plans for the ensuing year is a new cottage for the P. E., and another chapel to be built. It was thought there were about two hundred conversions. Conviction was pungent and conversions were clear; husband and wife and whole families were at the altar seeking God. The last night of the meeting was one of the most impressive services I ever witnessed.

The benevolences of the church, to which I have endeavored to give due attention, especially the Missionary and Conference Claimants, were apportioned to the various charges. While some may fail to raise their entire amount, others will exceed their apportionment; thus we hope the final showing will be creditable to the district.

One year ago the Conference appointed a committee to arrange a plan to canvass the Conference for the purpose of raising funds for the benefit of the "Preachers' Aid Society." This they did early in the year; their plans were generally carried out in the district; the results the committee will be able to give.

One thing has caused me great anxiety, the fact that so few of our Church papers and book of discipline are found in our Methodist homes. This evil we have labored to remedy. More than forty per cent. of our members have neither Church papers nor discipline.

Thirty pastors are doing the work on this district. While there has been an increase in the salary of some from $50 to $200 this year, yet there are others doing hard work with salaries quite too small, and I fear there are a number who will report salary not paid. These brethren and their families have had my sympathy, and to relieve them I have done what I could. I would that our work was in such a condition that the Bishop would be able to assign each pastor to a field of labor agreeable to himself and to the people.

Another eventful year has passed. If our hopes are not all realized, the results not all we had anticipated, yet we know that the Lord of the vineyard, who has watched while our weary toil lasted, will give us a harvest for what we have done.

On motion of W. H. Olin, it was ordered that in giving the reports each pastor state whether (1) all the collections were taken, (2) the amount raised for missions last year and collected this year, and (3) the amount apportioned and the amount raised for Conference Claimants.

Effective Elders' Report.—The following were called, their characters were passed, and they gave their reports :

W. H. Stang, E. L. Bennett, M. S. Hard, W. L. Thorpe, G. M. Colville, J. F. Jones, O. L. Severson, J. S. Lewis, J. D. Bloodgood, J. B. Sweet, F. H. Parsons, H. G. Blair, P. R. Tower, G. C. Jacobs, G. L. Williams, J. N. Lee, J. R. Wagner, H. H. Wilbur, C. D. Shephard, C. M. Surdam, A. F. Chaffee, D. C. Barnes.

Made Superannuated.—A. C. Sperry was called, his character was passed, and on motion of the Presiding Elder, he was granted a superannuated relation, and he was placed on the list of Conference Claimants for this year.

Chenango District.—Chenango District was called, the character of J. C. Leacock, Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report, as follows :

CHENANGO DISTRICT.

In presenting my fourth annual report I wish to record my gratitude to a loving Father, through whose good providence health and strength for the work of the district have thus far been granted me without interruption, even for a single day.

And though exposed to all sorts of weather, and called to the performance of excessive labor because of the large percentage of unordained men under my care, the many demands for help in revivals, and the "magnificent distances" traveled to reach appointments, yet I have no consciousness of impaired vitality.

Pastors, with slight exceptions, have had health fitting them for constant duty, and enabling them to manifest their zeal and fidelity in earnest effort for the advancement of Christ's kingdom during the year.

One parsonage has been invaded by death. November 30, after a brief illness, Grace E., eldest daughter of Rev. S. H. and Estella Wood, passed away from the home in Edmeston to a "home beyond the tide." The blow was keenly felt by the afflicted family of our brother, but while there was deep grief at the loss sustained, the memory of the beautiful life of the departed inspired a blessed hope of gain in the reunion reserved for the future, in

"A land whose light is never dimmed by shade,
Whose fields are ever vernal;
Where nothing beautiful can ever fade,
But blooms for aye, eternal."

Chenango District has suffered great financial depression during the past year. The deficiencies in pastors' salaries, notwithstanding the earnest appeals to the Quartely Conferences, special committees appointed, and numerous letters written on the subject, testify to this fact. Under these circumstances, the results reported to this Conference will tell of faithful service rendered by these men of God to whom have been intrusted, in large measure, the temporal as well as the spiritual interests of the Church.

Improvements in church property have been made on most of the charges, as will be seen by reference to the statistical tables of the forthcoming Annual Minutes, only a few of which we will specify.

At Killawog, on Marathon charge, E. N. Sabin, pastor, the church has been repaired and renovated at a cost of $300.

At Coventry, A. E. Thurston, pastor, the church has been made comfortable and attractive by repairs, refurnishing, and a discreet use of paper, paint, and hard wood ceiling, at an expense of $250.

At South New Berlin, L. C. Hayes, pastor, the church has been greatly improved by internal changes, painting, papering, refurnishing, and the putting in of beautiful memorial windows, the entire cost being about $560. Since the reopening of this church for divine services, February 17, the revival spirit has prevailed, a number have professed faith in Christ and united on probation, and new hope is inspired in the society.

We are pleased to report that the cost of improvements to which reference has been made is fully met. Previous indebtedness of our churches has also been diminished until there are no heavy burdens in this direction.

Plans have been made and subscriptions secured for a new church at Glen Castle, Choconut Center charge, U. D. Mattoon, pastor.

Our benevolences will probably aggregate about the same as last year, with some advance for missions. None of our charges have as yet been lifted into Dr. Young's fancied roll of honor by the exceptionally large gifts of a few wealthy laymen. Our largest offerings come from hard worked, poorly paid pastors.

Comparing the aggregate of benevolences for the quadrennium just closed with the aggregate of the next preceding quadrennium, making allowance for extra effort in the cause of education in 1884, we find an increase of fifty per cent., and comparing with the quadrennium closing 1881, we find one hundred per cent. gain. If further advance be made it must be reached by a greater enlightenment and a fuller consecration of our people, as we have nothing at present to hope for in the direction of increasing wealth or population,

Conversions have occurred on nearly or quite all the charges of the district—Greene, A. D. Alexander, pastor, and Whitney's Point, J. B. Cook, pastor, sharing most largely in numerical results. The footings will probably show about four hundred probationers,

We have flourishing Oxford Leagues in operation at Sherburne, Oxford, Norwich, Mount Upton, Morris and Whitney's Point; and through these organizations, which inculcate Methodism in earnest, both theoretically and practically, new life and power are being infused into the Church.

The camp meeting of the Oneonto and Chenango Districts, held at Sidney Grove last August, tried with success the plan of closed gates on the Sabbath. The audience was sufficiently large for our accommodations, the order was good, the Lord's day was honored, seekers were at the altar, there was no unfavorable reaction on Monday, but a rising of the spiritual tide from the beginning to the end of the meeting, for which we praised the Lord, while we hoped for like future action and results.

With thanks to God for his sustaining grace, and to my brethren of Chenango District for their Christian sympathy and hearty co-operation during the year past, my report is respectfully submitted.

The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed, and they gave their reports:

Effective Elders Reported.—Samuel Homan, S. H. Wood, G. H. Prentice, A. D. Alexander, Levi Jennison, E. N. Sabin, E. R. D. Briggs, L. B. Weeks, C. L. Rice, H. J. Van Clef, A. W. Cooper, J. S. Southworth, I. N. Shipman, J. F. Williams.

Honesdale District.—Honesdale District was called, the character of J. B. Sumner, the Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report, as follows:

HONESDALE DISTRICT,

With devout gratitude to God, a high appreciation of the consecration and efficiency of the preachers; with a cheerful recognition of the cordiality of the several charges, and a degree of personal satisfaction, we submit our second report of the work on the Honesdale District. As workers together with God we have labored in harmony, and the record will show that the design of the Church in the salvation of souls and the extension of the Kingdom of Christ, has been kept prominent throughout the district. The results can not be fully shown until we meet the year's toiling at the judgment, where the awards will be distributed with unerring wisdom.

The Honesdale District contains thirty pastoral charges, lying within the counties of Wayne, Susquehanna, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Monroe and Pike, in Pennsylvania, and Sullivan and Delaware in New York. To serve the district requires 4,500 miles of travel yearly. About three-fourths of these charges are circuits with from two to six appointments.

The pastors' salaries range from $300 to $1,200, averaging $557, and with the donations, $600. With a few exceptions these will be paid in full. There seems to be a great lack of method in Church finance. Some of our stewards are unmethodistic in their Church work. In fact, they have no method whatever. There are a few charges on the district where the finances are properly attended to, and the pastor is enabled to "owe no man anything," because his stewards have been faithful to him; but on many charges the salary is sadly neglected. The stewards seem to think that God will look after the wants of his servants now as he did Elijah, and they wait three, six, or nine months for the ravens to do the duties which the Church has assigned to them; but, so far as I can learn, no pastor has yet received his "bread and flesh" in that way, and the stewards find about half the salary unpaid at the beginning of the last quarter. A son of the Emerald Isle ran a race with a locomotive, and was distanced, of course. Some one said, "Pat, you didn't run fast enough." He replied, "Yes, sir; I ran fast enough, but I didn't start soon enough." Some of our stewards do not start soon enough, and so come out behind in the race. My only apology for presenting this subject in my report, is that this lack of timely and systematic effort not only diminishes the pastor's salary, but also cripples all the benevolences of the church.

Two camp meetings were held the same as last year, resulting in the quickening of the Church, and in the conversion of some eighty souls. The one at Uniondale was of unusual interest and power.

The total number of conversions on the district is about 700, an increase of forty per cent. over last year.

A Missionary Convention was held at Damascus, and two others were arranged for, which were interrupted by storms and a failure in speakers. The missionary collection will be about $250 in advance of last year. The missionary spirit is not strong on the district; but we are encouraged to believe that it is growing. The other collections will not vary much from last year. On many charges they are humilatingly small.

Improvements have been made in our church property on several charges. At Purdyville, on the Paupack charge, J. A. Transue, pastor, the church was painted and improved, and new sheds were built at a cost of $250, all of which is now paid. At Gouldsboro Station a lot has been secured and the foundation walls are now ready for a new church, which will probably be built immediately. At Waymart, A. F. Brown, pastor, about $150 have been expended in new church sheds. At Pleasant Mt., W. R. Cochrane, pastor, the church has been thoroughly repaired at an expense of $350, and all paid. At Peckville, W. B. Westlake, pastor, the parsonage has been enlarged and improved at a cost of $500, and the expense paid. On Stoddartsville charge, J. Davy, pastor, a new parsonage has been erected, costing $1,200, and is without debt. At Prompton, Honesdale charge, H. C. McDermott, pastor, a new bell has been purchased and the church painted, costing over $250. The Honesdale church debt remains at $10,000, the Society having newly roofed the parsonage, put in a new furnace, renewed the insurance, and paid the interest on the church debt during the year. This church might be freed from its crushing debt if one-half could be raised outside of Honesdale. I would suggest that the pastor be invited to go through the Conference during the year, and solicit $5,000 privately, and then raise the balance at home. At Damascus, F. A. Dony, pastor, some $500 have been expended in repairs, painting, and other improvements on churches. At Dunmore, W. Edgar, pastor, a most marvellous work has been accomplished: The old church and parsonage were disposed of, another parsonage bought, and a beautiful and commodious church built. The new church was dedicated February 24th, and over $4,000 raised on that day. The Dunmore charge is in excellent condition with a church property worth at least $13,000 and no debt upon it unprovided for. Much credit is due the pastor for the success of this noble enterprise. Carbondale, Jermyn, and Uniondale are contemplating building or enlarging their churches in the near future. In the temporal and spiritual condition of the district we are in advance of last year, but there is still room for improvement, and toward the future we hopefully look.

Made Superannuated.—The character of H. A. Blanchard was passed, and on motion of the Presiding Elder he was granted a superannuated relation.

The following Effective Elders were called, their characters passed and they gave their reports.

Effective Elders Reported.—Phillip Houck, A. B. Richardson, J. H. Boyce, F. A. Dony, Wm. Edgar, Joseph Madison, G. A. Cure, Phillip Holbrook, H. C. McDermott, J. F. Warner, T. M. Furey, A.

C. Olver, J. R. Allen, C. W. Todd, J. A. Transue, W. B. Westlake, W. R. Cochrane, J. V. Newell, J. H. Weston, Leonard Cole, A. F. Brown.

Oneonta District.—Oneonta District was called, the character of the Presiding Elder, W. H. Olin, was passed, and he read his report, as follows :

ONEONTA DISTRICT.

Oneonta District is in the north-east part of the Conference. It is about seventy miles long, and from ten to thirty-five miles wide and is along the Susquehanna river and tributary. The Delaware & Hudson Canal Co.'s Railroad runs through its entire length. It has twenty-seven charges, demanding as many pastors. It is largely a rural region, with small villages for centers of Christian work. It ranks the lowest of all the districts. It formerly was stronger. It is now in a transition state. With the exception of Oneonta, and three or four other villages, the population is gradually diminishing. What is to be the final outcome, no prophet has yet arisen to tell.

The preachers on the district has been blest with average health. Death has not entered the homes of any of them. They have been diligent and faithful in their work, and mainly men of one work. On some of the charges they have not been supported as they ought to have been. I am encouraged to believe that it will be better as the years come and go, and not worse.

Oneonta District furnishes abundant opportunity for self-denial, spiritual devotion and chivalry, from the Presiding Elder down to the preacher on the weakest charges. It is no place for men who want easy work and large pay, but it is a grand place for spiritual heroes.

The ground is classic in Methodism. Some of the grandest preachers numbered among the dead, were born and converted within its bounds. Many members of this and other Conferences, had their natural and spiritual birth within its bounds. The district is not prepared to surrender, neither am I. I am glad to have been permitted to work during the past year with the preachers who man it, and the membership who stand by them. Personally, I may say my reception on the district by the preachers and the members of the district has been exceedingly cordial. I was born, converted, licensed to preach there, and recommended to Conference from the Oneonta Church. I have been blessed with fair health, attend to my work every week and rejoice in it.

When the statistics are all gathered, it will appear that we have made some advance, not as large as we wished; but healthful and reliable. At all of the Quarterly Conferences I have brought forward the benevolences as required by the discipline. I have tried to preach the gospel when I have preached. I have preached to more Presbyterians and Baptists during the year than ever before. This grows out of the Union meetings that are held on the district. The utility of this condition of things is not an open question with me. I think it will appear that there have been revivals on most of the charges, but not as large as during the last year. The district is in fair condition and it is reasonable to expect a better state of things in the year to come. God helping us we shall not go back.

There are forty-nine churches and twenty-five parsonages on the district; many of them are fairly comfortable. The improvements of church property have been small, yet a good parsonage has been built at Sidney. Some of the churches have been beautified and improved. We do not look back, but turn our faces to the future and trust that the year to come may be more largely prosperous than the past.

The following Effective Elders were called, their characters were passed, and they gave their reports :

Effective Elders Reported.—N. B. Ripley, H. B. Cook, T. F. Hall, A. W. Loomis, J. W. Mevis, J. H. Taylor, Egbert Kilpatrick, David Personeus, R. C. Gill, G. T. Price, Thomas Burgess, O. H. McNulty, C. V. Arnold, C. H. Hayes, W. R. Turner, C. A. Benjamin, E. A. Baldwin, H. N. Van Deusen, Abel Wrigley, B. P. Ripley, A. J. Cook.

Owego District.—Owego District was called, the character of Samuel Moore, its Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read his report, as follows :

OWEGO DISTRICT.

In glancing backward over the year's work we are humiliated that more has not been accomplished; but rejoice that some things have been done.

THE FIELD.

Owego District as now constituted, comprises thirty-two pastoral charges, nineteen of these are located within the state of New York, and thirteen in the state of Pennsylvania. Four of these charges are stations having but one preaching place, the remaining twenty-eight have from two to six appointments.

THE WORKERS.

Thirty-two men have maned this field, and without exception have served the Church with a fidelity worthy the great cause they represent. Twenty-nine of these men are in effective relation to this body, two are local ordained men, and one a superannuated member of this Conference—Brother Asa Brooks, who has supplied thirty Danby charges with marked acceptability. The mercy of our God has shielded these men from the stroke of death, and from severe illness, with the exception of Brother C. H. Jewell, who will be obliged to retire from the effective ranks. Sister Barner, the wife of Brother Silas Barner, deceased, after a brief illness, entered the heavenly rest, and on the second of December last her remains were laid beside those of her husband in the cemetery at North Rome, Pa., to await the sound of the trumpet in the morning. The wife of Brother Ziba Evans has been in failing health during the entire year, and on this account, solely, he deems it wise to ask a supernumerary relation at this Conference. At the close of our last session the wife of Brother E. B. Olmstead was in feeble health; during the following week she was somewhat improved and hope was entertained of her recovery, but it was otherwise ordered. While Brother Olmstead was at Sayre preparing the new home for her reception, he was summoned to her bedside at Great Bend, and in a few hours she had departed to the better home above. One other preacher's home has been invaded by death during the year. Mrs. Catharine Williston, a saintly woman, mother of Brother Horace Williston, ceased to live on earth at the parsonage in Candor, June 19th, and entered the mansions of the blessed on high.

CHURCH PROPERTY.

Our Church at Smithboro, on the Barton charge, mentioned last spring as under way, was completed and dedicated in June last, costing about $2,700. The last dollar is secured.

The corner stone of a new church at East Berkshire was laid July 11th, and the church dedicated, free from debt, November 14th, costing $1700.

During the coming year a new church will be erected at Berkshire village on the same charge.

At Skimmers Eddy a beautiful country church is nearly completed, which will cost $3,000.

At Le Raysville a fine new parsonage has been erected and paid for, or at least fully provided for, costing $1700, offering one of the most inviting homes on the district to the coming preacher.

About $500 has been expended upon the Church of an out appointment on Slater-ville charge.

Something over $100 has been expended in repairs on our property on the Meshopen charge, and about $500 is now in hand to be used in more extensive repairs soon after Conference.

At Athens, under the judicious management of Brother Halsted, the pastor, aided by a few heroic, self-sacrificing men, and a donation of $250 from Mrs. P. L. Bennett, of Wilkes-Barre, the interest on the debt has been raised, and nearly $1,000 of the principle provided for. The remaining indebtedness of over $5000 is bonded and in such shape that the brethren know where it is, and what it is. I believe there is no place in all our borders where a better paying investment could be made by some man or woman to whom God has entrusted money, than in paying the debt on this church, and thus free this society from a heavy burden.

With some minor improvements and expenditures I am safe in saying our Church property on Owego District actually paid for is at least $10,000 more than last year. We have made diligent inquiry in regard to the titles by which our property is held, and find that in a large majority of cases the title is fee-simple, in a few instances a lease clause is inserted in the deed, and in one case the church is held by possession solely; no deed can be found, no record was ever made. Our property is generally well insured.

PASTORS' SUPPORT.

The average salary of the pastors, including parsonage, or house rent, is $719. The lowest, $400. The highest, $1700. Some of the smaller salaries have been supplemented by donations, but in some instances there will appear painful deficiency. Great need is felt for an improved system of Church finances. Some method by which our people could be induced to pay the pastor's salary quarterly or monthly, instead, as in many cases is true now, paying very little until within three months of Conference.

BENEVOLENCES.

Our Autumn meeting of the District Ministerial Association was given entirely to reading of papers, and discussion of topics relating to our benevolences. Dr. S. L. Baldwin, of our Mission Rooms, New York, was present and gave us an address of high merit, and, I trust, of great profit to all. The brethren said it was the best meeting of the kind they ever attended. The benevolences have been faithfully presented. We have urged the organization of Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies, and a large number are so organized. While the figures may show no great increase over last year, I shall be glad if there has been no falling off. We have no populous cities, no large manufactories. Our field is mostly rural, and the occupation of the people farming. The chief product that brings money to the farmer over a large portion of the district was so abundant, and the prices so low, that it scarcely paid the farmer for marketing; hence it is true that money has been very scarce. This much I am bound to say in defence of the true, loyal ones who would do more, if they could, for the great cause. There are many others who as yet do not put their hearts into the work, and hence their money is withheld.

REVIVAL WORK.

There has been extra revival services held on nearly every charge during the Autumn and Winter. These meetings have been promoted or carried forward, with one or two exceptions, by the pastor and his own people. Sayre charge has had a year of great prosperity. Sixty-five per cent. of the membership attends class meeting. Increase of ten subscribers for our Church papers. A Young People's Christian League, of more than fifty members, has been organized, and seventy souls converted. Sixty of these have united on probation. Other accessions make an increase of ninety for the year.

Slaterville.—Sixty per cent. of the membership attend class meeting. Conversions, thirty-three, and every interest of the work advanced.

Tioga.—Fifty per cent. attend class. Forty conversions.

Skinner's Eddy.—A class of twenty-five members has been organized at Transue Valley, mostly young converts. The pastor has also gone into the regions beyond and formed a new class of about twenty members. Prospect Valley, formerly a part of South Danby charge, at the earnest request of the brethren, has been attached to Candor, and has been supplied by Jasper W. Hewitt during the past year.

At Owego a Young People's Society has been organized, which gives promise of great helpfulness in the Church. A series of meetings were held during the winter, resulting in a number of conversions.

Waverly.—A Young People's Society was organized early in the year, has been well attended, and is of increasing interest.

Orwell reports twenty conversions; Speedsville, twenty; North Tioga, forty; Camptown, twenty; Berkshire, twenty; Litchfield, forty, and Windham, twenty. Apalachia.—Two-thirds of members attend class. Forty-five conversions.

Meshoppen.—Two-thirds attend class, and thirty-five conversions.

Every charge would bear honorable mention in this roll, but I will not further particularize. About fifty per cent. of our members attend class meetings. There has been a good increase in the number of subscribers for our Church papers, but the present number ought to be doubled during the next three months. Five hundred and twenty souls have been converted to God, and large accessions into full membership from probation, fruits of the previous year, have been made. Altogether it has been a year of growth, perhaps slow, but growth. To God be all the praise.

The following Effective Elders were called, their characters passed, and they gave their reports :

Effective Elders Reported.—T. P. Halsted, S. F. Wright, G. O. Beers, J. C. Johnson, I. T. Smith, I. B. Wilson, S. B. Kenney, J. L. Race, C. H. Sackett, Wilson Treible, N. S. Reynolds, A. G. Bloomfield, W. M. Hiller, E. P. Eldridge, E. B. Olmstead, W. W. Smith, G. A. Place, L. P. Howard, J. O. Woodruff, B. B. Carruth, J. B. Santee.

The characters of Ziba Evans and C. H. Jewell were passed, and on motion of the Presiding Elder, they were granted a Supernumerary relation.

Wyoming District.—Wyoming District was called, the character of R. W. Van Schoick, Presiding Elder, was passed, and he read an abstract of his report as follows :

WYOMING DISTRICT.

In my previous reports to this body it has given me pleasure to record that work of each pastor and charge which, it seemed to me, should receive special mention. I have done this for two reasons : First, to give honor to whom honor is due, and second, to place in this permanent form much information of great value, which would not otherwise be preserved. We are making history that ought to be engraven on the archives of this Conference, as well as on the tablets of memory. We have men in these days fully as worthy of enrollment on the scroll of fame, as

David's mighty men, whose exploits in battle won for their names and deeds, a place on the sacred page. How I wish my pen were inspired to inscribe in the clearest and briefest manner, that which deserves to be written concerning the work and the workers on Wyoming District during the year now closed.

Through the divine blessing the pastors have not been interrupted in their work by any general sickness. Only three parsonages have been invaded by death. In July, Sister Harned died in great peace. In the late summer the beloved wife of Brother Forsyth peacefully entered into rest. On the 12th of October, in the midst of toils and plans of increasing usefulness to the Nanticoke Church, D. C. Olmstead fell on sleep and passed over to the fathers. His death was an almost irrecoverable shock to his family and Church. Dr. Y. C. Smith, his life-long friend, will present a fitting memoir of our brother, whose life was crowned with usefulness and honor. A few other pastor's homes have been visited with sickness, but God has graciously spared those afflicted, and hearts ere while very anxious are now rejoicing in Him, "who healeth all our diseases."

Ashley, J. Bradshaw, pastor, has had one of the most extensive revivals in its history; reports the complete payment of its debt, and a generous advance in its collections. Five hundred dollars have been subscribed to enlarge the overcrowded Sunday School room.

Carverton, H. G. Harned, pastor, has increased its benevolent collections and has had some revival interest.

The new church at Dallas will be dedicated June 5th, by Bishop Foss. It will be one of the most unique and inviting edifices on the district. F. Gendall, pastor, and his progressive people have cause for great satisfaction in this achievement. About $6,000 have been collected, and the total cost of the enterprise, at least $10,000, will be fully provided for.

Eaton has had a prosperous year. George Pope, pastor, has labored very hard. He reports some revival work and a good advance in the collections.

Falls was constituted a Charge one year ago. Its three appointments, Falls, Mill City and Lake Winola, taken from Newton Charge, are promising fields. G. M. Chamberlain, pastor, has done most faithful service. All the collections are more than full.

F. A. Chapman, Forty Fort, has been continuously successful in his work. $2,879.30 have been paid on the debt. The missionary and other collections increased, and more souls won to Christ than in any former year.

J. K. Peck has had a wonderful year at Hanover. Two new churches—one at Hanover Centre, the other at Sugar Notch—stand to-day as monuments to the faith and toil of pastor and people. The church at Hanover was dedicated by Bishop Foss, April 4th, that day being the centennial of the dedication of the first church of any denomination in all north-eastern Pennsylvania. That first church was a Methodist Church, built in Hanover township. It seemed eminently fitting that the new church should be dedicated during the session of this Conference, and that the occasion should be graced by the presence of our honored Bishop, and the members of the body. The church at Sugar Notch will be dedicated June 7th, by Bishop Foss. Total cost of both churches will be about $8,000.

Harvey's Lake is a new charge. For several months R. P. Christopher, pastor, preached in a Lehigh Valley Railroad passenger car in which the Church was organized. By courtesy of Mr. Albert Lewis, a handsome building was erected for school and chapel purposes, and its use freely tendered our people. It was formally opened at our Quarterly Meeting December 9th. Kunkle, formerly connected with the Dallas Charge, was united with Harvey's Lake, and the two have paid the pastor $500, and a nice sum for the benevolences, with an increasing membership, two flourishing Sunday Schools, and the popularizing of Harvey's Lake as a summer resort. Great things may be expected from this charge.

Kingston, J. G. Eckman, pastor, has enjoyed a revival in which scores of the young people in the Seminary and community have been converted and the membership strengthened. All the collections are beyond those of last year.

Lackawanna has suffered greatly by the removal of a number of its best families to Scranton and West Pittston; but F. A. King, pastor, has so endeared himself to the entire community, that the congregations and Sunday Schools have been grandly sustained and revival interest and benevolent collections kept up to high-water mark.

Larksville, Plainsville and Pringleville, known as student appointments, have been supplied respectively during the year by G. E. Van Woert, L. E. Van Hosen and Wm. Smith, of Wyoming Seminary. They have done good work. If I am not mistaken the Conference will some day congratulate itself on the privilege of receiving them into its membership.

P. M. Motts' work at Lehman, has been efficient. The membership is in good spiritual condition and will report a considerable advance in the collections.

Luzerne, J. Underwood, pastor, has again been favored with a great revival, and a corresponding increase to its membership. $1,000 have been secured toward payment of the parsonage debt. The results of the year are grand.

The church at Maple Grove has been handsomely painted and other laborious work done on the charge, by J. W. Harrison, pastor. To my surprise, he has surpassed the great missionary collection of last year.

The church at Mountain Top, J. C. Hogan, pastor, has increased in numbers and spirituality. The audience room has been tastefully renovated and $313 paid on the indebtedness. All the collections full.

D. C. Olmstead's decease, October 12th, was a most unexpected blow to the Nanticoke Church. For several weeks they were like sheep without a shepherd, though the pulpit was kindly supplied by several of our pastors. On the last Sunday in November, Wm. Bixby was appointed to supply the charge until Conference. To say that he has done well would be putting the case too mildly. He has done more than well. The people are enthusiastic over him. The congregations have greatly increased, the finances have been brought up, and more than a score of souls converted. To my astonishment the Fourth Quarterly Conference unanimously asked that this man, 75 years of age, and in the fifty-fifth year of his ministry, be taken from the superannuated list, restored to the effective ranks, and returned to them as their pastor for the ensuing Conference year. Who says the churches are heartless, and disposed to give the cold shoulder to our old preachers?

Last spring Newton was left with three appointments, viz: Newton, Milwaukie and Shultzville. J. R. Angel was continued as pastor. During the year he has inspired the charge with hope, courage and success, as will be attested by the statistical reports. It is now one of our most desirable charges. A very convenient parsonage, three churches, and everything in good condition.

One hundred and forty-five probationers were added to the Northmoreland charge last year through the instrumentality of G. F. Ace, pastor. He has labored hard this year in training them for the duties of membership, and in pushing forward other important interests.

The work at Parsons, S. Jay Austin, pastor, is an occasion of devout thanksgiving to God. It has been the greatest year in the history of the charge. Hitherto it seemed impossible to induce the people there to attend the house of prayer in great numbers. The congregations were small, the church edifice too large. Now the church is too small and the congregations too large. One hundred and twenty have recently united on probation, the Sunday School is overflowing and all interests exceedingly prosperous.

W. J. Hills' great success at Pittston last year has been more than duplicated this year. The revival which began Christmas week was the largest in the history of the charge. The pastor will report a great increase in the membership, receipts for current expenses, and in the collections for benevolence. Plans are under consideration for the enlargement of the church edifice.

Stephen Elwell comes to the close of the year at Plains in the midst of a revival. He reports some payment on the indebtedness of the church, and collections good.

Pleasant Valley's numerical strength has so increased that the church edifice is quite too small to accommodate the congregations. One hundred and fifty have been converted. F. P. Doty, pastor, always successful, has this year surpassed his previous record in the ministry. The Quarterly Conference unanimously request that the name of the charge be changed to Avoca, the new name of the borough.

This will place it alphabetically near the top of the list of appointments, where it has won its right to belong.

There has been a good revival at Plymouth, L. C. Floyd, pastor. The mission at Boston Hill is now more prosperous than ever before. There is an advance of $51 on the missionary collection of last year.

The First Church, Scranton, under the pastorate of J. E. Price, has reached a deservedly eminent place among the great churches of Methodism by its grand offerings for missions, for the superannuated preachers, and all other benevolent enterprises. The work of the year must carry joy and inspiration to every lover of Christ's kingdom. There has been a glorious revival. This church has the honor of being the first in Wyoming Conference to make over to the Parent Missionary Society an offering of $2,000 in a single year. The John Rogers Mission has been most acceptably served by C. S. G. Boone, assistant pastor.

In October, G. W. Miller was unexpectedly transferred, by Bishop Hurst, to Centenary Church, Minneapolis, leaving the Hyde Park Church without a pastor. By their urgent request, O. P. Wright, of Green Ridge, was sent to them, and J. O. Spencer appointed to supply the Green Ridge Church. This adjustment has proven clearly providential. Both Churches close the year in excellent condition. Revival and benevolent interests have been grandly cared for. The coming summer a new front is to give a long needed improvement to the Hyde Park church. Brothers Wright and Spencer deserve high commendation for the work they have accomplished.

Hampton Street is taking on a more pronounced Methodist type, under the able instructions of W. R. Netherton, pastor. The revival and benevolent work compares favorably with former years. The trustees contemplate enlarging the church edifice, or building in a more eligible location.

W. J. Judd's pastorate at Park Place, has quadrupled its membership. A new and most convenient parsonage has been built and paid for within $1,000. A marvelous two years record! By advice of his physician and greatly to the regret of his people, Brother Judd is compelled to retire from the effective ranks to seek restoration of health.

The parsonage at Providence was completed early this year. It is one of the best on the district. The pastor, G. Forsyth, has had a year of severe trial in the death of his devoted wife; but God has so sustained him in his work that he reports the best revival in his ministry, and a splendid advance in the collections.

Our work in Taylorville suffers greatly for want of better church accommodations. But it is gratifying to report that from $800 to $1,000 are in hand for the purpose of securing a new church edifice, which will, I feel confident, be erected soon. J. A. Faulkner, pastor, has been most efficient in his work.

The church edifice at Tunkhannock, G. C. Lyman, pastor, has been enlarged and beautified, and will be re-dedicated June 6th, by Bishop Foss. It will rank among the most attractive on the district. The cost of improvements will approximate $3,500.

Stephen Jay's first year at Waverly gives great satisfaction to the entire charge. The Clark's Green Church has been improved by the addition of a bell tower and bell. Each appointment has had a revival, and will greatly increase the missionary and other benevolent collections. For the past month the pastor has been prostrated with severe illness. His Quarterly Conference generously granted him a vacation to seek restoration of health, and tendered him a purse to meet the expenses.

West Pittston, H. M. Crydenwise, pastor, makes a grand record in the increase to its membership and the missionary and other collections. The new hymnals, supplying the pews, were purchased this year. The Conference is permitted to behold the attractiveness of this church edifice, and to enjoy the royal hospitality of the West Pittston and Pittston people.

Central Church, Wilkes-Barre, has sustained an almost irreparable loss in the death of its Sunday School superintendent, Hon. E. C. Wadhams, who held that position fifteen years, and, at the time of his decease, had just been elected for the sixteenth year. Despite this great sorrow the church has moved forward grandly under the pastorate of Brother A. Griffin, showing that while God buries his workmen he carries on his work. The Church has had a good revival and will report an increase in its collections.

A. H. Tuttle closes his work at First Church with the highest commendation of its entire membership. During his pastorate the debt of $28,500 has been paid to within $4,000, and that fully provided for. The membership has doubled, and the Church has contributed thousands of dollars in benevolence at home and abroad. His sermons have gained more than a local celebrity, lifting the pulpit of First Church to a prominence second to no other in Methodism. By the princely gift of one of its members, the Sunday School rooms have been elaborately and beautifully frescoed. The school continues to rank among the first, if not the first, in our Church. We all mourn the death of H. H. Derr, a grand layman of that Church, who ranked among the most useful workers in Methodism. J. E. Bone, assistant pastor, has given great satisfaction in occasionally supplying the pulpit of First Church, and in his work at North Willkes-Barre.

E. L. Santee has accomplished a great work at Parrish street. The church edifice has been enlarged and made as attractive as any on the district at an outlay of $3,715.05. In addition to this financial work, scores of souls have been converted. The church was reopened last Saturday, Bishop Foss preaching and conducting the services. All indebtedness provided for.

The Welsh Mission, Isaac Jenkins, pastor, has prospered. The lots purchased last year have been paid for, and a commodious Church erected thereon. It will be dedicated June 4th, by Bishop Foss. Cost about $4,000. A class has been organized at Plymouth with fifty-one members and a Sabbath School of eighty, with Ellis Roberts in charge, as assistant to Brother Jenkins. A lot has been secured for a tabernacle to be erected the coming summer.

D. A. Sanford's work at Wanamie has been owned of God in a revival of remarkable power. Each appointment has shared in its fruits. The year will be remembered by pastor and people as the great year in the history of Wanamie.

W. Keatley makes another excellent report from West Nanticoke. The Church is much encouraged in the reduction of its debt, and by most gracious revival influences.

M. D. Fuller has done most efficient work at Wyoming. July 29th, the Isaac Shoemaker Memorial Chapel at West Wyoming, was dedicated. Cost of lot and chapel, $2,250. There, and also at Wyoming, a good revival has greatly strengthened the Church. The missionary collection is $78 beyond that of last year.

A new class has been organized at Laffin, a rapidly growing mining town, as an adjunct to Yatesville, L. W. Peck, pastor. This is a wise move, as the future will reveal. Pastor and people feel to thank God and take courage. The title to all our Church and personal property is in fee-simple, and nearly all is insured.

Two things have greatly embarrassed the pastors in their work this year, viz: The protracted presidential campaign extending from May until November, and the fearful depression in the coal business of the anthracite region. It is thought that not in twenty years has the coal trade been so dull as now. For months, thousands of men have had work only five or six days per month. Under these circumstances we have done the best we could. We have met this dullness and demoralization by organized and inspired effort all along the line. Like heroes, as they are, our pastors and people have accepted, uncomplainingly, this condition of things. They have taken joyfully the spoiling of their goods. Their deep poverty has abounded unto riches of their liberality. The hard times have only incited to greater faith and effort. Where difficulties have appeared, pluck and hard work, and the grace of God have much more abounded. The class and prayer meetings, the Sunday Schools and young people's organizations have been sustained with an enthusiasm I have never seen surpassed. The Camp Meeting, the District Meetings, the general exchange of pastors on Missionary Sunday, and the united effort to place the Christian Advocate, the Northern Christian Advocate, Our Youth, and good sound Methodist literature in the homes of our people, have all served to kindle revival fires and produce results in conversions and offerings for benevolence, which must forever redound to the glory of God and the praise of the pastors and people of Wyoming District.

While we have not neglected a single benevolent interest committed to our care, we have had, as pastors, an unquenchable ambition to increase the average gifts of our members and probationers to that cause which lies closest to the heart of the Redeemer—the missionary cause. Four years ago the district gave for missions, $7,059, an average of seventy-nine cents per member and probationer; the next year, $8,223, an average of eighty-three cents per member; last year, $9,121, an average of eighty-nine cents per member; this year, $10,401, an average of nearly one dollar per member. This advance is more commendable in view of the loss of Mehoopany, Meshoppen and Skinner's Eddy, set off from us last spring, and which gave $268 for missions last year. It ought to be said too, that the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. are heartily sustained by the Churches of the district.

As nearly as I can ascertain the district has given this year, $6,234 for the Preachers' Aid Society. This subscription may slightly decrease our regular collection for the Worn Out Preachers, because of the unfortunate impression of many of our people that the Preachers' Aid Society Fund was designed to do away with the regular collection for the supernuates. We have done our utmost to correct this impression. As I understand it our Churches are never to be prohibited from making their annual offerings to the men whose toils and sacrifices have created and transmitted to us the glorious heritage we enjoy. The interest of the Preachers' Aid Fund was designed solely to swell the aggregate of the seannual offerings. So, that, instead of doling out, as heretofore, to their beneficiaries, the merest pittance, we might extend to them the generous allowance they deserve.

In his epistle to the Romans, Paul relates how "the Gentiles were made obedient in word and deed, by his preaching of the gospel of Christ, through mighty signs and wonders by the power of the spirit of God." In like manner, it seems to me, has God honored His word and spirit among us in bringing hundreds from a life of sin to obedience and devotion to His cause. In my quarterly visitations, scarcely a love feast has been held in which those newly converted have not testified. Every charge has shared to a greater or less degree in revival influences. The conversions reported to me definitely from each charge, are as follows: Ashley 165, Carverton 10, Dallas 5, Eaton 20, Falls 8, Forty Fort 60, Hanover 45, Harvey's Lake 44, Kingston 50, Lackawanna 11, Larksville 2, Lehman 25, Luzerne 115, Maple Grove 10, Mountain Top 15, Nanticoke 25, Newton 10, Northmoreland 10, Parsons 122, Pittston 260, Plains 10, Plainsville 11, Pleasant Valley 150, Plymouth 70, Pringleville 8, First Church, Scranton, 100, Green Ridge 25, Hampton Street 20, Hyde Park 25, Park Place 10, Providence 63, Taylorville 40, Tunkhannock 12, Waverly 40, West Pittston 40, Central, Wilkes-Barre, 43, First 75, Parrish Street 60, Welsh Mission 32, Wanamie 225, Wyoming 32, West Nanticoke 15, Yatesville 5, total 2,123. About 1800 of these have already united with our Church on probation. "Glory to God in the highest, on earth peace, good will to men!"

After the adoption of Constitutional Amendment on the 18th of June, and prohibition shall have thrown over us the aegis of universal temperance and prosperity, the district will double the number of its conversions each year until the millennium.

Dr. Sprague, President of Wyoming Seminary, continues to demonstrate his admirable fitness for that responsible position. Under his management, assisted by a superior Faculty, the school is more prosperous than ever before in its history. The erection of a Methodist Episcopal Hospital in the City of Philadelphia, with no limitations as to creed, class, conference or state, commends its claims to the attention and liberality of the preachers and laymen of this Conference; therefore

Resolved, That as this institution will be available and easy of access to those within the bounds of this Conference who may need special medical skill and treatment, we assure its board of managers that we will co-operate with their representative, Rev. Judd, son of Rev. C. W. Judd, who was with his wife for twenty years a missionary in India.

As this claimant is now about sixteen years of age, this is the last claim that will be made upon the society from this source.

Preliminary Report of the Committee on the Publications of the Methodist Book Concern, submitted April 5, 1889:

We have heard with much interest the strong and clear address of the Rev. Dr. O. H. Warren, editor of the Northern Christian Advocate. We recognize the great importance of the Church paper in the hands of our people, and believe that its mission is second only to that of the Holy Scriptures and the preaching of the Gospel. We gladly bear witness to the marked ability with which the Northern Christian Advocate is conducted. Therefore be it

Resolved, That during this centennial year of our Book Concern, we ought to make a special effort to double the list of subscribers and thus crown the year with a work which will be a lasting blessing to the people.

Resolved, That we should more and more strive to make the canvass for our religious periodicals a regular part of our pastoral work.

Resolved, That in this canvass we should recognize the special claims of the Northern Christian Advocate, not only on account of the eminent ability with which it is conducted, but also on account of the fact that it more immediately represents our own local interests.

Memoirs.

REV. CORRINGTON E. TAYLOR.

Rev. Corrington E. Taylor was born (from the best information now obtainable) in Rome, Bradford county, Pa., and died at Whitney's Point, Broome county, N.Y., April 23, 1888. In his early youth he was converted to God, and entered the travelling ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. During that service, covering the best part of his life, his appointments were as follows, to wit: In 1842, Pike; in 1843-4, Skinner's Eddy; in 1845-6, Abington; in 1847-8, Salem; in 1849-50, Northmoreland; in 1851-2, Skinner's Eddy; in 1853, Hawley; in 1854-5, Beach Pond; in 1857-8, Orwell; in 1858-9, Windham; in 1860-61, Barton; in 1862-3, Castle Creek; in 1864-5, Abington; in 1866-8, Little Meadows; in 1869-70, Whitney's Point; 1871, superannuated; 1872-3, Chenango; 1874-88, superannuated. Brother Taylor's appointments for thirty-one years of continuous labor shows acceptability in a good range of charges, mostly on the old two years rule, till superannuation. He was two years on every charge save three, the first and Hawley being for one year; one for three years, the rest twos.

Brother Taylor was characterized by great love for Methodism. Her pure and simple doctrines were his delight. He had great love for her old preachers, her old members, her songs, her prayers, and her holy associations. He delighted in revivals and the saving of souls. He was a regular attendant at class and prayer meetings and all the means of grace. He was a great lover of Temperance, including prohibition and all true amendments. He had joined the Independent Order of Good Templars, met in their meetings, and mingled there with old and young, being always serious, yet always cheerful, carrying everywhere a bright and healthful influence. Brother Taylor was especially attached to the Sabbath School; and when his throat failed him so that he could not preach, he still held his class in the Sabbath School, and taught the advanced and aged students of God's blessed word, and from that word brought forth treasures new and old.

Shall I draw aside the curtain from the closing scene of his life?

His wife, the faithful sharer of his ministerial labors, about a year previous, through sufferings short but sharp, had preceded him to glory. He had been sick about four weeks. He sent for his pastor, Brother J. B. Cook, and for the brethren and sisters of the church choir. Prayer was made and all sang "Jesus, Lover of my Soul," and "Rock of Ages, Cleft for Me." His soul was on wing for heaven, and he said to Brother Cook, "O thank God that I have been a Methodist preacher, and I pray God to abundantly bless you and your labors here at Whitney's Point." His funeral was held on Sabbath. At a union meeting of all the churches of the place all the pastors participated. He died universally bemoaned. He has rejoined his sainted wife. He has met our translated brethren. And may we not all say:

"We'll be there, we'll be there,
Palms of victory, crowns of glory
We shall wear,
In that beautiful world on high."

REV. DEWITT CLINTON OLMSTEAD.

“Our wasting lives grow shorter still
As days and months increase;
And every beating pulse we tell
Leaves but the number less.”

In 1852, when the Wyoming Conference was organized, sixty-three men received appointment at the hands of the Presiding Bishop. In 1888, five only of those same men received appointment in like manner from the President of this Conference. One of the five was Dewitt Clinton Olmstead, whose useful life and happy death afford ample subject for this day's memories and this day's mourning. Through a life well rounded out with years and honors, our brother helped to make the first few decades of our Conference history illustrious, when our times shall become historical.

Brother Olmstead was born in Nichols, Tioga Co., N. Y., May 15, 1826, and died in Nanticoke, Pa., October 12, 1888, being in the sixty-third year of his age. He was the youngest son of Joshua and Salome Olmstead, whose children grew up to be an honor to their parents not only, but also to more than one of the communions of the body of Christ. His youthful advantages were respectable, though not remarkable, and he was early thrown upon his own resources for the culture and training so necessary to travel the path that stretched away before him. He had strong will power, and tireless habits of study, and these stood him in good account when the Savior called him to be a fisher of men.

At the age of sixteen he was converted at Briggs' Hollow, on the Nichols charge, in a revival of religion conducted by the Rev. Edwin G. Bush, of the C. N. Y. Conference, who went to heaven just twenty-five days later than Brother Olmstead did. He taught school for several terms, and was licensed to exhort May 15, 1844, the day he was seventeen years of age. He was licensed to preach, by the Nichols Quarterly Conference, June 6, 1845. In 1848 he was received on trial in the Oneida Conference, of which the Wyoming was then a part.

He received both his ordinations from the hands of Bishop Waug—Deacon in 1850, and Elder in 1852. From the time of his conversion it became a settled question in his mind that he was to become a preacher of the gospel; but as circumstances were not sufficiently pliant to encourage his longings, and supplement his necessities, he determined to try what, with God's blessing, he could do alone. Near his father's home was an old, unused log house. He arranged with his father for his time, went with his books into that old house, and began to study, that he might become a man, and might be useful and have a record in the Church of Christ. He was not turned from his purpose by the scoffs and jeers of those that could not comprehend his noble aims; and his perseverance soon began to tell in the growing interest that was felt in his sermons and his prayers.

His ministry was protracted through forty years of continuous service, and during all these years he was effective in the highest sense of that term, for he did work that was approved of God, and of which he needed not to be ashamed among men. He served the following charges, and in the order named: Genoa Mission, Le Raysville, Brooklyn, Tunkhannock, Canaan, Honesdale, Danby, Caroline, Windsor (twice), Binghamton (Court St.), Abington, Union, Wyalusing District, Honesdale District, Waverly, N. Y., Wilkes-Barre (Central), Milford, Oneonta, Pittston, Nanticoke. From first to last he was never absent from a session of his Conference, nor was he ever absent for more than four consecutive weeks from his charge and his work.

Brother Olmstead was a born preacher. It seemed inwrought into his very being that the gospel ministry was the most important work done on earth, the most honorable work, and the work that entailed the greatest reward. Hence no diminutive thought, touching this holy calling, could find any place in his mind. This faith made him an enthusiast in the study of the Word, as well as in the preaching thereof. He prepared his sermons with the greatest care, for he could not endure crudities respecting eternal things, when sanctifying knowledge might be had for the seeking. Nor could he tolerate carelessness, for even that might prejudice immortal souls.

Brother Olmstead did not try to convince others by what did not convince himself. He must see through a scriptural proposition before he could rest, and before he would teach it to others. Hence he grew up into habits of patient study and thoroughness that made him a master in investigation, and a very instructing and entertaining preacher. He laid his foundation carefully, built upon it conscientiously and scripturally, and drew his conclusions with logical irresistibility and completeness. It was a valuable school for the young preacher to sit at his feet and learn from his investigations and from his experience the things of the kingdom of God.

Brother Olmstead was a man of great simplicity and of character. Finesse did not belong to him, and insincerity was no part of his moral make-up. He had a single eye, and the vision of that eye was the kingdom of the truth as it is in Jesus. Christ was his Genius of Liberty, and it was Christ's word that he held aloft to enlighten the world. Politics and secular scheming were driven out of his heart as with a scourge of small cords. And yet he was a man of opinions on all the topics that distinguish this age; and to those opinions he anchored, and possessed his soul in peace. It was a comfort to see how he rested when he felt that the truth was under his feet. He was a patriot as well as a Christian, and I might say much touching his grand utterances during our civil war. I might say much, also, concerning his testimony upon the great temperance reform. But why need I? I should be saying only what is true of every one of his Conference associates; and I could not thus distinguish him; for the Methodist ministry is solid on both these great national issues for the happiness of men, and for the glory of God.

But the trait of character that distinguished our brother above every other trait, we judge to be his singular fidelity to the duties of every particular station that he was called to fill. His thought appeared to be, "this is the Lord's work, and I am His representative, and I must be in sympathy with HIM in the great enterprise of saving the world."

"Sanctify them through Thy truth; Thy Word is truth," was the revelation of a mine to him, of which he could never find the bottom nor the bounds. That mine he worked with all his great power of thought, aided by his own glorious experience. His work was to preach the truth, to win men to Jesus by the truth, and to build them up in a holy life by the truth. He was not a sensational preacher, as we use that adjective now, but he did work that abides. He was a breakwater against crudity and fanaticism, and the work of his hands was established upon him. Men saved through such instrumentality are more likely than others "To go from strength to strength, every one of them in Zion."

For eight years he was Presiding Elder; first on the Wyalusing District and secondly on the Honesdale. He carried his accustomed industry and pains-taking into all the work of that responsible office. In 1872, and again in 1888, he was one of the representatives of his Conference in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. He was a wise and safe legislator, and in his hands the interests of the Church suffered no derogation.

In 1865 Lafayette College complimented him with the honorary degree of Master of Arts. At the time of his death he was a member of the Board of Trustees of the Conference, and Secretary of the Board. He was twice married; first, to Miss Emma E. Bailey, of LeRaysville, of whom he was bereaved after twenty happy years; and secondly, to Miss Emma J. Lane, of Montrose, who was, at the time of her marriage, Preceptress of the Claverack Seminary on the Hudson. She survives him. May the Lord comfort her. Two children also are left, with tender claims upon our sympathies and our prayers. They are an honor to us. May we show a regard for them like that which their sainted father showed to our children while his moving tent was with us. His daughter is now Mrs. Fred. E. Ives, of Philadelphia, and his son is—as all but strangers know—our dear young brother, now stationed at Sayre, in this Conference.

Brother Olmstead died in the full possession of his faculties, and was not disquieted when he saw the end was near.

From out the gathering shadows of the mortal hour he bore his last testimony to the Christian religion in the lines of George Keith,

“How firm a foundation, ye saints of the Lord,
Is laid for your faith in His excellent word.”

And, finally, he adjusted himself in his bed, folded his hands upon his breast, and articulated, “I am now ready,” and with invisible friends he departed for the home of the blessed, whose joys you and I must die to know.

MRS. REV. EDWIN B. OLMSTEAD.

The mortal remains of Cora L., the beloved wife of our brother, the Rev. Edwin B. Olmstead, quietly rest in the beautiful “city of the dead” at Binghamton, N. Y., awaiting the first resurrection. She departed this life on the 2d of May, 1888, in Great Bend, Pa., after a severe illness of six months. Her disease was a complication of derangements, which undermined a once vigorous constitution, and resulted at last in the separation of the natural from the spiritual.

Our sister was born in the town of Seward, Schoharie county, N. Y., February 8, 1863, but most of her life was spent at Cooperstown and Milford, Otsego county. She was converted when only ten years of age, and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, where were speedily developed those gifts and graces which gave her a position of influence in society, and eminently fitted her for a successful pastor’s wife. She was not an outer court worshipper, but entered the inner sanctuary, even the holy of holies. There seemed to be spiritual affinities between her soul and God so delicate and tender that she was susceptible of and sensitive to the slightest touches or the softest whispering of the Divine Spirit. Day after day she grew, week after week she strengthened, and year after year she rose, and while her feet stood on the earth, her spirit walked with the white-robed and glorified. Her citizenship was in heaven. She was a dweller in the divine banqueting house, and love’s soft silken banner continually waved over her.

If I were asked to name the most prominent element in Sister Olmstead’s character, which gave to her the measure of achievement that came to her life and work, I should reply, a patient trust in God. I think it is Mrs. Browning who speaks of one who wrought with “the patience which was almost power”; and our own Longfellow’s “Still pursuing, still achieving, learn to labor and to wait,” contains the same truth. So our sister learned to labor, and had that not only “almost,” but altogether power to wait—a patience that rose above peevishness, above fretfulness, above despondency, above discouragement, amid her multifarious duties, thus giving her an influence which made her a model minister’s wife. No wonder, then, that her memory is precious in the field where she labored with her husband, that all classes united to do honor to her dust, and that every place of business in the town was closed on the day of her obsequies.

To all she was kind and affable. Her marked urbanity and politeness were not so much the result of education as of the overflowing goodness and gladness of her own heart. The poor and the unfortunate cherish the memory of her kindly attentions and cheering words.

To her husband, now sadly bereft, she was indeed a helpmate, faithful and true. Her devotion to his calling, her ability to adapt herself to the varied circumstances of an itinerant’s life, her anxiety lest he should come short of his whole duty as Christ’s ambassador, her cheerfulness in times of adversity, her beautiful character, were to him a most blessed inspiration.

Her religion, that had kept her through fifteen years of busy toil, sustained her wonderfully in her death, and we know by her testimony and happy smile at the last, that she had a triumphant entrance into the life eternal. She was young to die—only twenty-five—but she was willing “to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.” Friends, gather to yourselves the cheer and the comfort, that the affection, that the love, that the regard which you cherish is immortal. Our sister is gone, we shall see her no more on earth, but the Christian’s hope that swells up in my heart and in yours, indicates that there is coming a day when we shall greet her beyond the river, redeemed and saved in the power of an endless life.

"Oh, though oft depressed and lonely,
All our fears are laid aside,
If we but remember only
Such as these have lived and died."

MRS. REV. H. G. HARNED.

N. A. Carter Harned, wife of the Rev. H. G. Harned, of Wyoming Conference, died at Carverton, Pa., July 23, 1888.

She was born in Auburn, Susquehanna County, Pa., March 31, 1839. At about fifteen she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. October 12, 1861, she was married to Brother Harned, then a teacher. Soon he entered the itinerant ministry, and found her an invaluable aid in all responsibilities. In every charge Sister Harned held a high place in the esteem of the people, both for the excellence of her christian character and her activity in Church work. She was a model house-keeper and made her home very attractive.

Her death was peaceful in the extreme. With her husband and daughters, Lena and Hattie, she conversed with utmost cheerfulness until the last, when, bidding them good-night, her eyes closed in slumber until the morning of the resurrection. The eldest daughter reached the parsonage too late to receive her mother's last words, but saw on her face the beautiful smile which told how happily she had passed away.

Rev. R. W. Van Shoick conducted the funeral services at Meshoppen, Pa., assisted by the Revs. G. C. Lyman and W. H. Stang. The church was thronged with sorrowing friends, and at Retta Cemetery, the place of her interment, a large gathering of former acquaintances and associates testified, with tearful grief, their love for her memory, and their sympathy for her husband and daughters, and the many others so sorely bereaved by her death.

MRS. REV. SILAS BARNER.

Mrs. Harriet N. Barner, widow of the late Rev. Silas Barner, died at the home of her daughter, the wife of Rev. C. H. Jewell, in Lockwood, N. Y., Nov. 30, 1888, aged 73 years.

The deceased was born in Montrose, Pa., June 25, 1815, and was the daughter of George Claggett.

She was converted in early life and immediately joined the M. E. Church, of which she was a member for over fifty-four years. She was ardently attached to the Church of her choice, and ever lived a consecrated and pure christian life.

She was married in 1851 with Rev. Silas Barner, of the Wyoming Conference, and for over thirty years shared with him the trials and triumphs of the itinerancy. She was never very strong in body, hence her labors in the Church lay not so much in public work as in the gentle ministrations of the home. Yet she was always glad to do all in her power to help her husband in his work, and was held in high esteem by the people wherever she lived.

Her last illness was brief. The death angel came in the form of paralysis and bore her pure spirit to the realms of eternal blessedness. The memorial services were held at Rome, Pa., where she was buried by the side of her husband.

Rev. M. R. Kerr officiated, preaching from the words, "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle be dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens."

REPORTS.

PASTORAL ADDRESS.

We, your pastors, assembled for our annual meeting, send greeting unto the members of the Methodist Episcopal Church within the bounds of the Wyoming Annual Conference: "Grace be to you, and peace, from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for our sins, that He might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of our God and our Father, to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen."

We rejoice with you in the progress which another year records. Besides a marked increase in the number of churches and parsonages, the steady advance of our educational interests, and enlarged contributions to our great benevolences, over five thousand conversions are reported. We delight to acknowledge your many kindnesses to us and our families, and especially your hearty co-operation in the work of God, knowing that without such co-operation these blessed results could not have been realized.

Our work as preachers and pastors has been greatly aided by your demand that we be faithful to our high commission. In this holy work many duties fall to us whose performance is always a delight, but we must not shun to declare the whole counsel of God. Ours is usually a ministry of comfort and of reconciliation, but there are occasions when stern duty demands of us that we emulate the heroic prophet of the wilderness who entered Herod's palace and shook the lightnings of judgment in the face of the King. And if we have urged you to christian loyalty and fidelity, you have in turn rightly demanded that we shall be faithful in preaching the word of God. You are demanding a ministry for the times, and we are asking a Church for the times, and the great world with its sin and its woe is calling loudly for both. To meet this call we must have in us the life of Christ, and be charged with His spirit. Not better orthodoxy, not better machinery, not modification of our present system is essential, but more life and power. In this age, as always, the chief need is endowment of spiritual power, and with this we shall conquer. This we need to meet the prevalent

SKEPTICISM OF THE DAY.

This is manifest in much of the literature of our times, and is illustrated in the vast sale of a work of fiction whose chief feature is a quasi theological discussion under cover of which assaults are made upon the faith we hold dear. Despite the fact that the demonstrated truths of physical science only lend added force to revelation, and the further fact that many of the ablest scientists of our time are devout worshippers of our Lord and Saviour, yet multitudes of young men caught in the currents of skeptical thought have cut loose from their moorings and are drifting away from the faith in their mother's Bible and their father's God. Vast numbers, overborne by the rationalism of the day, and unable in their ignorance to distinguish between theory and fact, prate loudly about the overthrow of the biblical account of creation by the developments of science. Besides, many capable thinkers have bitterly assailed the volume of inspired truth. The Bible, revealing God's law, declaring his awful holiness and majesty, and condemning human sin, has been assailed a million fold more than any other book. Against the immovable foundations of this Word—God's Eddystone Light—the infuriate passions of wicked men, the cunning malice and gigantic forces of mighty thinkers, as so many wrathful billows, have wildly surged for nearly two thousand years,—but in vain. The sea of human opinion has been kept full of foam ; the rock itself remains unmoved, and bears aloft the Light which flings its white radiance far and wide to guide the storm-tossed sailor safely home.

Now, to lead the disturbed and doubting mind to the literature of Christian Evidences—popular presentations of which are published by our own Book Concern—will be helpful, and this is both a privilege and a duty. Reason, as well as faith, has its office. But the most convincing proofs of the divinity of the Gospel are the reconstructed characters and transformed lives of its believers. The volume of Christian Evidence most effective must be a holy, consistent, Christian life, charged with spiritual power. Let the Church flame with love for souls, and glow with the light of a vital piety ! Let the Church be “fair as the moon” in her pure life, “clear as the sun” in her experience, and she will prove “terrible as an army with banners” in the overthrow of all forms of infidelity.

Here, too, is to be found the best antidote to the desire for

SINFUL AMUSEMENTS.

Through these, in too many instances, Christian disciples allow themselves to be robbed both of religious enjoyment and usefulness. Many of these forms of amusement have come to be looked upon more leniently. Efforts, possibly to some extent successful, have been made to purify and elevate them, but their tendency for the most part is yet downward. Pertinent questions for every Christian disciple are: “Do these amusements aid or injure any Christian life? And if harmless to myself, but harmful to others, am I not bound by the law of Christian expediency to avoid them?”

Now, the Church and pulpit must meet this evil not by a censorious, acrimonious spirit that may only alienate the young, but rather by the power of a positive Christian life. The glow of a fresh and fervent religious experience is to make the Church supreme in its attractions. A pure gospel in the pulpit, a sweet, rich experience in the pew, must cure this growing evil. “Walk in the spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lusts of the flesh.”

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETIES

deserve a large place in our sympathies, affording as they do wholesome entertainment under helpful influence and good surroundings. Such societies are springing up rapidly through the Conference. The past year has given birth to many. In most of these literary and scientific study and social pleasures are blended with the study of the Bible and our own Church history and polity. These societies ought always to be in harmony with the Quarterly Conference, and it is eminently desirable they should be brought under the general control of the Oxford League, recently established by the authorities of the Church.

Permit us to ask your earnest co-operation for the new year in the promotion of

REVIVAL WORK.

Methodism was born in a revival, and the fires thus kindled soon spread through England, leaped the waters of the Atlantic and swept as flame through the colonies of the New World. The vast majority of her zealous votaries in both ministry and laity were born of God amid the white heat of a revival season. True to our traditions and our teachings, let us keep foremost the great purpose of winning souls, and thus keep ourselves always joined to the central purpose of Jesus Christ, who “came into the world to save sinners.” Let the spirit of evangelism be kept alive through all the year. O for a return to the apostolic times when “the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.” Besides our watchword for missions, let us inscribe on the folds of our banner as a Church, “A Million Souls for Christ!” and in the spirit of Wesley and of Whitefield, of Francis Asbury and Thomas Coke, and other heroes who led the army in the early days, let us unitedly pray and toil and sacrifice till we reach that glorious achievement.

But Methodism has also been from the beginning and we should be true to our history in this respect. The divine declaration, “Ye are my witnesses,” summons the power of the tongue, as well as the power of a godly life, to attest the truths of Christian experience. If the decadence of the class-meeting is an indication that the spirit of testimony is waning among us, it should indeed be occasion for alarm. Let us guard against this evil, remembering that for the most part a voiceless Christianity is either a puny or an altogether lifeless Christianity. Profession and testimony, as well as fruit, are expected of the Christian disciple whose garment should be adorned like the robe of the High Priest, with alternations of "a golden bell and a pomegranate round about."

Proper improvement of the many means of Christian culture is urgently commended. To regular attendance upon the preaching of the Word, the social services, prayer and class meetings, must be added reverent and fervent worship at the family altar, and careful instruction of the children in the home. It is said, "The Nation waits at the fireside," and the Church must find in the Christian home a potent ally in all moral and religious enterprise. Especially should we have a care to the right observance of the Sabbath. Let not the Sunday newspaper be permitted to lift the floodgate and pour a tide of secularity into the home, diverting mind and heart from religious meditation and devout worship. Let our Sabbaths be given to spiritual fellowship and adoring service. Let them be not so much holidays as holydays—days of spiritual uplift, days of growth, days of banqueting at the King's table.

THE CARE OF SOULS

devolves upon us the most sacred responsibilities. Perils beset the path of the young convert. The world, the flesh, and the devil, combining against him, may effect his overthrow before he is made steadfast and unmoveable. Our disciplinary provision for a probation contemplates six months of tenderest care, practical sympathy, and helpful training. But the loss of probationers is something startling. It is a deplorable fact that numbers of our converts "endure only for a season." We must have a care to throw round these souls the mantle of a protecting love. They must somehow be kept from the evil that is in the world. They must be established in the Christian life, and be fortified in the faith. They must be trained, too, in Methodism, in her inspiring history, her glorious doctrines, her unique polity, that as disciples "tried, trusty, and true," they may stand for the defense or toil for the advance of the Church we love.

OUR BENEVOLENCES

have been right royally supported. Despite the disturbance to business characteristic of a year in which the whole nation is aroused to political excitement, and despite the depression which from various causes our industries have felt in many localities, our offerings for many of the benevolences have increased.

Two points, perhaps, need to be emphasized. The first is systematic beneficence. Every member of Christ's flock should, if possible, give something to every benevolence, and do this with regularity. "Freely ye have received, freely give." The second point is, the pure motive. Nothing can be more pleasing to God than the dedication of the substance of the Church to the promotion of God's work. The products of the mine, the farm, and the factory may be by love transmitted into imperishable riches. Care should chiefly be exercised that the gifts be prompted by holy motives. The divine solicitude as manifest in the Sacred Word is concerned less with the gift than with the motive of the giver. Simplicity, cheerfulness, gratitude, love—these are all exalted. The widow's mite thus given wins the Master's approval, and upon her head there rests throughout the ages the diadem of a Saviour's blessing.

Our several benevolences serve to bring before us our great connectional interests and help us to realize that we are part of a vast army, in which we touch elbows with some of the noblest and best spirits of any age.

Chief among the moral reforms that claim our effort is that which looks to the overthrow of

INTEMPERANCE.

We need not attempt to portray its evils. Its frightful ravages, its unchallenged responsibility for most of the pauperism and crime weighing so heavily upon our generation make it the eternal foe to society and the home. But in sheer self-defense is the Church bound to exterminate the liquor traffic since it obstructs all her philanthropic and benevolent enterprises, lures to death upon her domain, and entering her sanctuary, trails the robes of piety in the very dust.

Surely, if Wesley lived to-day he would transfer his epithet from slavery to the traffic in intoxicants, for it is indeed "the sum of all villainies." We are now confronted by a great opportunity in that large portion of our Conference territory which lies within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and there can be no doubt as to the position you will take on this question. In Western States where Constitutional Prohibition has been submitted, our people have stood loyal and true for the defense of the traditions of our beloved and aggressive Methodism, and have joined their forces in a holy crusade against this giant iniquity—this common enemy of God and man.

In this conflict it is hardly needful that we exhort you to cast your ballots "for God and home, and native land." But we may be allowed to urge to all possible endeavor. In the clock of Time, God's just hour has pealed. Let us now strike for victory! Let everybody be active! Let the great question be agitated. Allow no man's conscience to slumber. Agitate. AGITATE the public mind on this tremendous theme. Kindle the fires of patriotism. Stir up religious fervor. Use argument, persuasion, entreaty—all honorable efforts to induce men to rise in their might and throttle this most stupendous evil of the age.

In conclusion, Brethren, in all things let our motto be, "Holiness to the Lord." Let us hold fast to "sound doctrine," and not be "turned into fables." Let us "endure hardness as good soldiers of Jesus Christ."

Before the Conference year shall close many of you will be called home. Let us be diligent, "redeeming the time." Life is passing! Death is approaching! Judgment is coming! Eternity opens before us! Now is our day of opportunity! Fields white to the harvest call for unremitting toil!

"Think not of rest, though dreams be sweet,
Start up and ply your heavenward feet;
Is not God's oath upon your head,
N'er to sink back on slothful bed?
Never again your loins untie
Nor let your torches waste and die,
Till, when the shadows thickest fall,
Ye hear the Saviour's midnight call.
He calls you angels; be your strife
To live on earth the angels' life."

"Now, the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus Christ: that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant, make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in His sight, through Jesus Christ: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen."

EDUCATION.

In the great work of enlightening and educating our multiplying millions of citizens, the Methodist Episcopal Church takes no mean place. We would certainly view with alarm the great university now being founded at the nation's capital by an apostate church, were it not for the fact that, as never before, the people called Methodists are waking up to the demands of the hour, and that the cause of education is receiving a recognition which is more commensurate with its relation both to Church and State. The favorable disposition of our people toward education affords a good opportunity for pressing the claims of the schools more fully upon our congregations. A hearty word from the pastor, a wise and generous thought in the pew, would greatly increase the usefulness of the Board of Education.

What proportion of time and strength ought to be given to higher education is not always easy to decide. Different answers will be given by different individuals, but, with rare exceptions, it is agreed that the Christian college must keep pace with the Christian Church. We are gratified to know that the Board of Education of the Methodist Episcopal Church has been placed by the late General Conference upon an equality in every respect with the other great Boards of the Church. Its object being to promote Christian Education, is a work without which the Church at home and abroad could not very well be carried forward. Working in harmony with all our colleges and seminaries, it cheerfully renders all possible aid to every such institution and organization. It is hoped that "Children's Day," introduced to the Church by the Educational Board, will be loyally used by us for the great connectional ends proposed.

We would also emphasize our obligation made to Syracuse University and Wyoming Seminary, and pledge ourselves anew to push towards completion the payment of our indebtedness to those home institutions. In all that pertains to a first-class academic institution Wyoming Seminary takes front rank. Never in all of its history has such marked advancement been made in all departments. Her halls have been crowded with students, and the able faculty not only attend to the intellectual development of the students, yet, better than all else, the moral and spiritual nature has been cultivated also, and the famous motto of Eddystone Lighthouse might well be inscribed over our Seminary door: "To give light and to save life." Improvement is the order of the day, and the Trustees act upon the belief that the best is none too good for Wyoming Seminary. That noble monument to its honored founder, Nelson Memorial Hall, offers every facility for its designed purpose, and is complete in all of its appointments.

Our University at Syracuse has had a year of unexampled prosperity, and on its roster are inscribed the names of more than six hundred students. The John Crouse Memorial Hall edifice, which is ready for dedication, is the finest college building on the continent, the heating apparatus alone costing over $40,000. It is to receive, with other suitable furniture, one of the largest organs in the State and a magnificent chime of bells from its generous donor. With her three colleges, well manned and equipped, Syracuse may now fairly claim to be a university in fact, doing real university work up to the demands of the times.

Time-honored Wesleyan, under the presidency of Dr. Bradford P. Raymond, is determined to keep pace with the increasing demands upon her, so as to maintain the position belonging to her historically in Methodism.

The Drew Theological Seminary sustains an enviable reputation among the schools of the prophets, and with an earnest faculty is faithfully doing the work entrusted to her by the Church. Boston School of Theology reports the largest attendance in its history. We congratulate the Church on the strategic location of this institution, in the centre of a great city where are auxiliary educational advantages of great value to candidates for the ministry.

The burning words of Drs. Payne and Sims at our educational anniversary have given a new impulse to this great cause, and we believe will not soon be forgotten. Realizing, as never before, the great need of the times, we hereby pledge ourselves to greater interest in the cause of Education, and will in public and private, so far as possible, urge our young people to make good use of the means placed within the reach of all, and thus become better able to make a success in the battle of life.

WYOMING SEMINARY.

To the Bishop and Members of Wyoming Conference:

DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN: The Trustees of your honored institution of learning, the Wyoming Seminary, present this their forty-sixth annual report to this body. We are pleased to say that the past year has been one of unprecedented prosperity. This is true as to the finances and also as to the number of students in attendance. During the winter term there were 370 students, which is the largest number registered in a single term since the school was organized.

Under the skillful and judicious administration of the President, Rev. L. L. Sprague, D. D., aided by the excellent Lady-Principal, Miss Anna A. Fisher, together with the co-operation of an efficient corps of professors, the discipline of the school has been excellent, and the best of order maintained.

A high moral and religious tone pervades the entire Seminary, and during the winter term there was a special religious awakening, during which time a large number of the students were led to Christ.

A careful sanitary supervision, good board, and a kind Providence have prevented any serious illness, and the health of the students has been uniformly good, many parents having testified that their children are healthier here than they were at home.

The buildings are all in good condition, and supplied with all necessary conveniences of furniture and apparatus. Being lighted by electricity and heated with steam not only affords comfort and convenience, but removes, almost entirely, exposure to danger from fire.

The Nelson Memorial Hall was formally opened for the use of the school on June 12, A. D. 1888, with an appropriate and able sermon by Rev. J. E. Price, Ph. D., of Scranton. This is a magnificent structure, and provides the most beautiful chapel found in connection with any school of its grade in this country. It also furnishes superior accommodations for the musical department.

Broad and comprehensive courses of study have been arranged in order to meet the various wants of all students who may apply for admission. These courses are specified as follows: The Literary-Scientific, Mathematical-Scientific, Normal, Scientific College-Preparatory, College-Preparatory, Classical, Musical, Course in Art, and the Commercial Course; all of which have maintained a degree of thoroughness that will not suffer from the closest inspection. That the College-Preparatory departments have been thorough in their work is evident from the fact that their graduates have, as a rule, entered college without conditions, and that five leading colleges admit them on the diploma of this institution, without examination.

The Musical department, under its able instructor, Prof. H. V. Stadler, is in the highest degree successful and prosperous.

The department in Art is well patronized, and produces many fine specimens as evidences of its efficiency.

The Natural Science department is keeping abreast of the times. The laboratories have been provided this year with increased facilities for the experimental work of modern science teaching. The mineralogical collection has been enlarged and re-classified, and we consider the physical and chemical laboratories of Wyoming Seminary equal to those of any Seminary in the land.

The Business College connected with your Seminary has been ably conducted by Prof. W. L. Dean, principal of that department. A large number have graduated during the year, and the readiness with which they obtain lucrative situations indicates that they have been thoroughly prepared for business. My time will not allow me to speak at length of each department of study, but we invite all to come and inspect the work being done.

Co-education, in this institution, has proven the most effectual method for the mental and moral culture of young men and women. They are under intelligent regulations, and have careful oversight, resulting in salutary influences upon each other.

Considering the advantages afforded by this school, the expenses of students are very reasonable. A large discount is made to ministers of the gospel. A Reading Room is provided for the students, containing both daily and weekly newspapers and literary and scientific magazines.

The Library of the Seminary contains some 2,400 volumes, and valuable works are being added from time to time. Rev. H. Browsscombe, deceased, late a member of this body, by bequest, gave the Seminary 600 volumes from his library. These are a valuable collection of theological and Methodist literature, for which the Trustees have acknowledged their obligation and expressed their gratitude.

It becomes our sad duty to record the death of our esteemed brother, Henry H. Derr, an efficient member of the Board of Trustees, which occurred on October 12, 1888. His close attention to the business of our school, and his liberal gifts towards its material growth, make us sensible of the fact that the institution has lost a valuable friend.

We earnestly invite the continued co-operation of our ministers and people in maintaining this first-class Seminary of learning. Thankful for past patronage, and the support of Divine Providence, we look forward, expecting to see still greater success in the years to come.

We would respectfully recommend the election of B. G. Carpenter, Lewis H. Taylor, M. D., and John J. Shonk as Trustees, to serve for a term of three years.

TEMPERANCE.

In the thoroughly organized Drink Evil of our times, we recognize a system prolific of crime, insanity and pauperism, a deadly fungus upon the body politic, an insidious foe to the happiness and prosperity of our homes, schools and churches—in a word, a standing menace, black and formidable, threatening to subvert our modern Christian civilization.

We believe the experiences of a century's warfare with this evil has completely demonstrated the inherent and absolute impotence of the license system as a means of suppressing the liquor traffic.

In view of this great fact, we rejoice that the principle and policy of prohibition, as a suppression measure, emanating as it does from the Word of God, has been officially recognized by the highest tribunal of our nation as in perfect accord with the spirit and letter of American institutions.

We also rejoice in the fact that the policy of constitutional prohibition, sustained by political influence, has, within the last decade, proved itself to be, and notably so in the states of Kansas and Iowa, an agency fully adequate for the annihilation of this great and overshadowing evil.

Therefore, we, as Methodists, with the example and precepts of our Founder as an inspiration, do hereby resolve:

First, That in our judgment the one and only goal of the Temperance Reform is constitutional prohibition, state and national; and as an aid in reaching this goal we dedicate ourselves, voice, vote and example.

Second, That we extend the hand of fellowship to all helpful agencies, especially the National Temperance Society, the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and the Independent Order of Good Templars; and we commend these agencies as worthy of the confidence and support of our people.

Third, That we have no faith in High License as a temperance measure, but regard it as calculated to give added respectability to the saloon, and to intrench it more deeply in the cupidity and avarice of the people. Let this infernal business stand out undraped before the public in all its moral and social hideousness.

Fourth, That we deprecate the oft-repeated vocal and printed utterances of present inability to secure and enforce prohibition. In the name of him who has said, "One shall chase a thousand and two shall put ten thousand to flight," let us inspire the people with the belief that with God helping us we can most speedily overcome and destroy the Anakim of the liquor traffic.

Fifth, That while seeking to outlaw this traffic, we will not relax our efforts to teach and enforce the virtue of total abstinence.

Sixth, That we call upon Congress to enact such laws regulating inter-state commerce as will protect the citizens of Prohibition States from the merciless invasion of the liquor traffic; and the neglect to do so we regard as a flagrant violation of the rights of citizens.

Seventh, That we call upon all order-loving citizens of the State of Pennsylvania, without regard to sect or party, to unite in one grand effort to secure the adoption, on the 18th of next June, of the Constitutional Prohibitory Amendment so honorably submitted by the Legislature of the State; and we recommend that the charges within the boundaries of this State allow their pastors to devote all possible time and effort toward making the Constitutional Amendment campaign a success; and we further recommend that the Sabbath of June 16th be set apart as a day of special supplication to Almighty God for his blessing upon this great movement, and likewise that our pulpits, especially on this day, send forth an earnest and faith-inspired appeal to the people to rise in their might and abolish saloonism within the State.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

J. G. ECKMAN, Chairman.
G. H. PRENTICE, Secretary.

MINISTERIAL SUPPORT.

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Church demands that her pastors give their whole time to the work of the Church, and

WHEREAS, A number of charges report deficiencies in the support of their pastors; therefore

Resolved, That we earnestly request official boards to begin at once with the Conference year to carry out the disciplinary plan for securing the full claims for ministerial support. Respectfully submitted,

JAS. L. RACE, Chairman.
GEO. L. WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

CONFERENCE COLLECTIONS.

Your Committee on Conference Collections submit the following report:

WHEREAS, It is the acknowledged mission of the Methodist Episcopal Church to Christianize the world and spread scriptural holiness, and

WHEREAS, This work requires money, as well as other appliances, to secure the desired result; therefore

Resolved, That we most heartily acquiesce in the demands made upon us from year to year by our various organizations having this end in view.

Resolved, That $1,200,000 for missions, by collections, is by no means an unreasonable demand, and that we rejoice in the hearty endorsement given it in our greatly increased contributions to this cause.

Resolved, That we will, as pastors, commence early in the year to present these Conference Collections to the people that we serve, and urge it upon them as a duty and privilege to meet all these apportionments in full.

Resolved, That while we rejoice in what has been done in the past, we would urge upon all our people the importance of increased liberality as a means of grace.

It is with great pleasure that we report a Missionary Collection from every charge in the Conference; but we are sorry to find in the other Conference Collections eighty-five blanks. It is to be hoped that another year's report will be "Collections all taken."

MISSIONS.

Your Committee on Missions respectfully report the following:

The conversion of the entire race to the Christian faith, and the establishment of the Kingdom of Christ in this world, are the two great objective points in all Church effort. The spiritual condition of mankind compels the acceptance of the universal laws of demand and supply in the realm of grace. All men are dead in the first Adam; all men may be made alive by Christ, the second Adam. These two facts are alike the basis and inspiration of all evangelistic endeavor, both at home and abroad. The commission of our Lord to preach the Gospel to every creature not only justifies and demands the most thorough obedience and consecration, but His promised aid and companionship dispels all doubt, and confidently assures to the Church ultimate and triumphant success. The present condition of the missionary operations of our Church is an occasion for congratulations and hopefulness, and though some anxiety is felt by our board because the demands on the Church exceed its receipts, yet we believe that the wonderful success attending the efforts of our Missionaries will so inspire our home Churches to increased liberality that their response will be equal to the existing necessities. The review of the past year fills our hearts with gratitude to God. The fact that the world is open to the Gospel, and the conversion of the world now reduced to a question of finance, is enough to make heaven and earth jubilant.

The prophecy of the holy seers is becoming history. The visions of Christ's Kingdom that stimulated and sustained the pioneers in our Mission fields are being realized. The false religions that have held in the folds of a superstitious embrace hundreds of millions of our fellow men, are failing in their grasp. Obstacles that seemed insurmountable are being rapidly removed. The gates of a long standing hostility to Christianity are opening, and kings and governments are not only permitting the entrance of the heralds of the cross, but bidding them welcome. The multitudes won to Christ in all our Mission fields are the first fruits and promise of a speedy harvest. The reformatory forces of the Gospel are as spiritual leaven in the meal of heathendom, and the keen eye of the eastern philosopher readily discerns the benign effects of the Christian religion. In view of these inspiring facts and signs of the times, we submit the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we heartily approve the appropriation of $1,200,000 for the Mission work of the Church, and pledge ourselves to keep pace with the demands the Providence of God may impose upon us.

Resolved, That we most earnestly and emphatically request all our Preachers to adopt the methods prescribed by our discipline in reference to Missionary work upon their charges, especially the organization of the Sunday Schools into Missionary Societies.

Resolved, That we recommend the holding of a Missionary Convention on our several districts in the early fall, believing it would not only stimulate the brethren, but produce good results in all the charges they serve.

Resolved, That the visit of Dr. Baldwin, and his admirable and instructive address, delighted and profited the Conference, while the inspiring Secretary, Chaplain McCabe, was never so dear to the heart of our Conference as at the present.

Resolved, That we rejoice in the thousands converted at our altars during the past year, and see in this fact the promise of a large increase in our Missionary receipts, if the pastors will only properly direct them along the line of practical religion.

Signed,

L. W. KARSCHNER, Chairman.
A. B. RICHARDSON, Secretary.

STATE OF THE CHURCH.

The Church is the "household of faith." To her are committed the oracles of God, and she is commanded to carry the Gospel to all the inhabitants of the globe. The magnitude of the work might well appal the stoutest hearts, were it not for the promises, "Lo, I am with you alway," and "My grace is sufficient for thee."

The opportunities before the Protestant Church were never so many or so inviting as now. The fields are everywhere white to the harvest. The Church was never so well prepared for aggressive work as now. She has more wealth, more intellectual culture, more successful agencies employed, and more willing workers than ever in the past. And there never was a time when she was extending her conquests so rapidly as now. She is marching with the tread of a giant. And yet her resources are but partially developed, and her powers but imperfectly applied. The great need of the hour is a more complete consecration of money and mind and heart to the cause of Christ.

We rejoice in the prosperity of every branch of Christ's Church, but we glory especially in the successes of the Methodist Episcopal Church. We believe her doctrines, we love her polity, we are proud of her history, and we are incited to our noblest endeavor as we contemplate the possibilities of her future.

We rejoice in the increasing unity between the different branches of the Church, and, while we re-affirm our devotion to Methodism, we extend to every evangelical denomination the hand of Christian brotherhood, and bid it God speed in its efforts for the salvation of the lost.

We believe that the Church is to fill the whole earth, that she is to continue forever the safeguard of liberty, and the fountain of the highest civilization. God bless the Church.

Respectfully submitted.

P. HOLBROOK, Chairman.
D. C. BARNES, Secretary.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE METHODIST BOOK CONCERN.

In making our report on the publications of the Methodist Book Concern, we must recognize with thankfulness to Almighty God the phenomenal growth of the publishing department during the last hundred years. And when we consider that this growth is connected on the one hand with the dissemination of pure and Christian literature, the good influence of which has been incalculable, and on the other hand with the support of the superannuated ministers, it must be a matter of devout gratitude that so much has been accomplished. At the New York Conference in 1789 the printing business was commenced, and John Dickins, pastor of the John Street Church, where the Conference was being held, was chosen Book Steward. The first book issued was Wesley's abridged translation of that flower of mediæval devotion, The Imitation of Christ, and within a year, the Discipline, the Hymn Book, Baxter's Saint's Rest, and Wesley's Primitive Physic were issued; our fathers, with characteristic Methodist sagacity, thus providing for the care of the body as well as for the care of the soul.

During the year closing November 30, 1888, the business of the New York and Western Methodist Book Concerns amounted to $2,000,874, being an increase over the preceding year of $46,109. It is probable that this vast business is greater than that of any other denominational publishing house in the world. As a thank offering therefor the Book Committee have distributed a special gift of $50,000 to the Conferences this year, making, with the regular dividend, the handsome sum of $100,000, which goes to the credit of the superannuated preachers. And as such a state of things as this could not be possible without the hearty co-operation of the ministry of the Church, it will be seen how our own interests are bound up with the success of the Book Concern.

Of our publications we have this to say: We hail the new life that is being infused into the Methodist Review by its wide-awake editor, Dr. Mendenhall, whose elegant address we listened to, and trust that that venerable periodical may renew the vigor of its youth. We hope that the traditions of scholarship which have been bequeathed to us by Dr. McClintock, and the traditions of profound and masterly theological discussion which the lamented Dr. Whedon has left us, may be maintained under its present leadership. While we are in sympathy with the purpose of the editor to widen its constituency by a short and more varied treatment of current topics, we deprecate any attempt to bring the Review to the level of the magazine or newspaper. What the ministry of our church needs is a theological review in which all theological and cognate terms may find a scholarly, candid and thorough discussion, and in which the space may not be wasted by paragraphs of the newspaper order.

The Christian Advocate is still the nestor of our Church periodicals, and we cannot speak too highly of the versatility and timeliness of its utterances, and of the tact of its management in meeting the varied needs of the Church.

The Northern Christian Advocate is edited with remarkable ability, and has a special claim upon us from the fact that it represents more immediately our own local interests.

Our Youth is a bright and pure paper for the young people. Its continuance is problematical, as it is not a paying investment. It is an excellent paper for the older classes of the Sunday School, and we urge the officers of the same to consider the special terms which are made to schools.

Our Sunday School publications are unexcelled, and are growing even better each year. The Methodists can afford to have only the best.

Concerning the books, we welcome the publication of books of a high character like the Library of Drs. Crooks and Hurst, and pray that they may find their way upon the bookshelves of all our clergy. We would suggest that the best discussions of American theology by English and Continental divines be reprinted by our Book Concern, and that both the broader and narrower schools of thought in our Church be given equal representation.

It seems proper that during this year we should make an effort to double the list of subscribers to our papers, to introduce our books more largely into the homes of the people, and to make this canvass a regular part of our pastoral work, and thus crown the year with a work which will be a lasting blessing to the people.

As we enter upon the second century of our Book Concern, we may indulge a degree of pride that the example set by Wesley in publishing the Christian Library and in scattering literature all over the United Kingdom, has been followed by his successors in all parts of the world, and that our Church has thus been able to do such a great work for God and humanity. The leaves of the tree of knowledge are still for the healing of the nations. Let us more diligently circulate our books and periodicals till knowledge grows from more to more, and strength of mind, intelligence and love of truth are as characteristic of Methodists as fervor, earnestness, and piety.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Corresponding Secretary of the Sunday School Union sends greeting to the Wyoming Conference, and suggests that the Presiding Elders apportion $950 among the charges, to be raised during the coming Conference year.

The collections for the past year are as follows:

Binghamton.....	$ 66 00
Chenango	34 00
Oneonta	37 00
Owego.....	46 00
Wyoming.....	113 00

Total.....$ 334 00

A decrease of $88 from the previous year.

WHEREAS, The object of our Sunday Schools is to develop an intelligent, Christian character, therefore

Resolved, That we care with more earnestness for our Sunday School work.

Resolved, That we will use every legitimate endeavor to raise the standard of Christian intelligence among our young people.

CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Committee on Church Extension respectfully submit the following report, comparing last year with this:

Binghamton	Dist...	last year...	$ 464 00	this year...	$ 658 00	gain...	$ 94 00
Chenango	"	"	126 00	"	105 00	loss....	21 00

Owego	"	"	267 00	"	296 00	"	29 00
Wyoming	"	"	1086 00	"	714 00	loss....	372 00
Total for		"	...$ 2227 00	"	...$ 2093 00	"	...$134 00

Decrease from the collections of last year, a trifle over six per cent.

WHEREAS, The United States is the great field where the battles of government and of Christianity for the world are being fought; and

WHEREAS, The Methodist Episcopal Churches of the country are among the defenses on which God is counting in these conflicts; and

WHEREAS, The Church Extension Society has had great success in planting these strongholds among the needy populations of our country, in the past; therefore

Resolved, That we look with regret on the decrease of six per cent. in our collections for this cause, while a commendable advance has been made for the cause of Missions.

Resolved, That while we will not abate our zeal for the great cause of Missions, we will try earnestly that the cause of Church Extension shall not suffer on that account, but will do our best to equal or exceed our several apportionments for the coming year. Respectfully submitted,

N. S. REYNOLDS, Chairman.
GEO. A. CURE, Sec'y

EPISCOPAL FUND.

Your committee respectfully submit the following report:

The amounts raised on the several districts are as follows:

Binghamton.....	$ 250 00
Chenango.....	152 00
Honesdale.....	198 00
Oneonta.....	157 00
Owego.....	230 00
Wyoming.....	467 00

Total.....$ 1454 00

The aggregate is $43 more than the amount raised last year, and $729 less than the amount apportioned for this year.

WHEREAS, The large number of Bishops added to the board by the last General Conference, and the action of the Conference requiring the salaries of the two Missionary Bishops to be paid from the Episcopal Fund, demand largely increased contributions to this fund; therefore

Resolved, That we, as pastors, will put forth increased effort to raise the amount apportioned to our several charges.

P. M. MOTT, Chairman.
J. H. LITTELL, Sec'y.

FREEDMAN'S AID AND SOUTHERN EDUCATIONAL SOCIETY.

Your Committee respectfully submit the following report:

Receipts by districts:

Binghamton District.....	$ 332
Chenango ".....	91
Honesdale ".....	134
Oneonta ".....	164
Owego ".....	224
Wyoming ".....	620

Total.....$1565

This shows an increase of $110 over last year.

Your committee recognize the vast importance of the work our Church is doing in the South, and extremely regret that the small collections taken for this cause do not indicate as much interest in this work as the Church has a right to expect from us. In the South, among the colored people and illiterate white people, our work is truly Missionary and as much needed as anywhere the English language is spoken.

Our Educational Centres are the bulwarks of our Church then, and we must either support them or sound a retreat all over that land. Methodist Ministers do not know the notes that make that kind of music and have no desire to teach or learn it; therefore

Resolved, That we will re-double our efforts to raise the full apportionment for the Freedman's Aid and Southern Educational Society, and by all laudable means within our reach endeavor to support it in the prosecution of its majestic work.

JOHN BRADSHAW, President.
R. M. PASCOE, Secretary.

OBSERVANCE OF THE SABBATH.

WHEREAS, A religious observance of the Christian Sabbath is an essential of the Christian religion, and a chief defense against the encroachments of unbelief, immorality and crime;

WHEREAS, This institution is in peril, not only from the open disregard and irreverence of the foreign elements of our population, but also from what is to be feared as a growing laxity of opinion amongst American and Protestant-born people;

Resolved, It is the sense of this Conference—

That the Christian Sabbath is an American Institution, to be defended as zealously as the National Constitution;

That the Sabbath newspaper is chief among the agencies opposing the practices of a pure religion, and is in no way necessary to the life of American ideas, the support of private and public morality, the improvement of general intelligence, or the dissemination of news;

That the attitude toward the Sabbath, of corporations, is still open to criticism; that responsibility for the fault rests with the individuals composing the corporations, that though it may be true that "corporations have no souls," it is sad that men should lose their souls on entering corporations;

That we perceive, with satisfaction, a tendency to return to a quiet Sabbath as a good business aid, and see in this an opening for the moral obligation of the Sabbath;

That we record a vote of endorsement and of condemnation. We endorse the work of the American Sabbath Union, under the lead of Rev. Wilbur F. Crofts. We disapprove and emphatically condemn the practice by any Camp Meeting Association of charging an admission fee at the gate upon the Sabbath day, or directly or indirectly encouraging the running of Sunday excursion trains.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY.

That ours is the greatest country on earth an American Conference would be excusable for believing and declaring in the face of the world. It is great in history, great in deeds, and great in possibilities. We believe that the secret of its greatness is its Christian character. Founded by Christians, preserved in all its perils by Christian valor, and continued with Christianity as its great bulwark, we affirm that in the predominance of this peculiar feature of it lies its continuance and future pre-eminence among the nations of the earth. Ours is not a pessimistic body. We behold evils that are numberless, and defects that mar and weaken the character and stability of our government, but we remember that "God sent not his son into the world to condemn the world, but to save it"; hence we unite in commending the general administration of our government, in executive, legislative and judicial departments, as in the main wise and patriotic and Christian.

As a religious body we take pleasure in commending the godly examples of the Executive of Pennsylvania and the President of our nation, and in asking the divine blessing upon the home and life of each, glad that in White House and in Executive Mansion the religion of our Lord Jesus Christ has strong citidels that attract the attention of the world and commend that blessed faith and practice to all our citizenship.

We believe that religion is the best foundation of patriotism, and we labor to take the nation practically and thoroughly religious.

The committee respectfully presents the following preamble and resolutions:

WHEREAS, Evils exist in our body politic which appear detrimental to our permanence and prosperity as a nation; and

WHEREAS, The religious bodies of America, representing a great moral power, have great responsibility resting on them, measured only by the extent of their influence, which influence is manifestly immeasurable; and

WHEREAS, The religious needs of the army and navy have been presented before us; therefore,

Resolved (1), That we unite in the support of every measure that will contribute to the destruction of every foe to our national progression a line of Christian civilization, such as the elevation of bad men to official station; the encouragement in any degree of skepticism and infidelity; the desecration of the Sabbath, or changing of it from a day of rest and worship to a day of recreation and amusement; and the toleration of the rum power at all within our borders. This last must go from among us. We pronounce upon it anathema, and will fight it in forum and on field until its destruction is complete.

Resolved (2), That we cordially co-operate with other religious bodies and reformatory agencies to effect reformation in the civil service and in society, believing that there should be agreement and concert of action against common evils in this crisis of our country's history.

Resolved (3), That we respectfully petition the Congress of the United States to increase the number of army and navy chaplains until all posts in these branches of the public service are supplied with religious instruction, and that we request the President to fill an existing vacancy in each branch of this service by the appointment of an efficient minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CHURCHES AND PARSONAGES.

From the information obtained by your committee, we are happy in being able to report a decided progress in the matter of building and improving churches and parsonages, and in the payment of debts, and insurance of property. We hope that the good work will go on until we are free from all indebtedness, and every appointment provided with a good church edifice, and every charge with a complete itinerants' home.

CHURCH MUSIC.

Your Committee on Church Music submit the following report:

WHEREAS, The Methodist and Epworth Hymnals are the standard productions of our Church's enterprise, and have already gained favorable recognition for their many excellencies among the best collections of sacred music in the world, and that by their use a great improvement has been made in the method and spirit of rendering our church music; therefore

Resolved, That we will stand by these collections, given us by the highest authorities of the Church, and will recommend their universal use in our congregations.

Resolved, That we will endeavor, as far as practicable, to secure persons of Christian character and experience to lead our choir and congregational singing; and

WHEREAS, The successful use of these Hymnals requires some knowledge of the principles of music; therefore

Resolved, That to accomplish this and obtain the best results, we will endeavor to inspire our people to organize singing classes, and to meet frequently for the purpose of studying the principles of music, and learning to sing the sacred songs of the Church. Respectfully submitted,

S. F. WRIGHT, Pres't.

BIBLE CAUSE.

The American Bible Society, to which we sustain the relation of beneficiaries, has, during the seventy-two years of its history, given to needy men, women and children fifty millions of Bibles, in eighty of the leading languages of the globe.

We of American birth have had in our hands, from early youth, the Book of God; it has been a lamp to our feet; and while we have rejoiced to walk in its light, thousands coming from other lands have here, for the first time, been permitted to know for themselves what is God's word to man.

During the last six years the American Bible Society has made a fourth general canvass of our whole country; has visited over 5,000,000 families, over 500,000 of which were found without a Bible in their homes. Of these destitute families 427,346 were supplied by the Society, while 179,663 refused to accept the versions supplied by it.

Those thus, by their own wills, left unsupplied, belong to the class, found in this country, who threaten our public schools and our churches, and who, therefore, fain would strike the very pillars from beneath our national existence and pluck the brightest gem from the brow of the world's Redeemer.

Perhaps but few realize how much the American Bible Society has done to counteract the influence of the class of which we here speak, as its benign influence, like the influence of the sun, has fallen silently, and also like the sunlight, it has fallen alike upon the good and the evil; upon the just and upon the unjust.

The Pennsylvania Bible Society, which covers nearly one-half of our Conference territory, is now eighty years old, being the oldest on the continent, and continues to vigorously circulate the Bible throughout the State of Pennsylvania in every language spoken by her many-tongued people. This Society, during the past year, has distributed 118,494 volumes; some of which were in raised type for the blind. The General Secretary, Rev. Dr. Morrow, has done excellent work during the year, as has also Rev. S. S. Kennedy, who has devoted thirty-three years to the work of Bible circulation.

The American Bible Society is doing a great work, but O the vastness of the demands upon it! No brief report can give an adequate knowledge of either the work or its need; suffice it to say that, owing to the tide of immigration continually rolling upon this country from heathen and from half evangelized nations, there is a pressing demand for a well organized and efficient society for the gratuitous distribution of God's Word. This demand the American Bible Society is trying to meet.

The receipts from the several Conference districts are as follows:

Binghamton District.....	$ 89 00
Chenango ".....	46 00
Honesdale ".....	67 00
Oneonta ".....	67 50
Owego ".....	83 69
Wyoming ".....	321 94
Total.....	$675 13
Decrease from last year.....	12 55

Your committee respectfully submit the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, The Bible is the only standard of moral rectitude which bears the authoritative seal of Almighty God, and is the only mine of truth unmixed with error:

Resolved, That it behooves all lovers of morality and truth to aid in placing in the hands of all men this Divine measure of character, and in giving all men access to this mine of "gold tried in the fire," that they may be rich and that with such riches they may buy the "white raiment" of God's righteousness. And

Resolved, That each member of this Conference, remembering "the entrance of thy Word giveth light," should see to it that the direct rays of that light are not withheld from any soul by neglect on his part. And

Resolved, That as a Conference we will urge the claims of the Bible Cause until the light of the Bible is as free to the destitute as the light that rules the day.

RESOLUTIONS.

Resolved, That first and above all we devoutly recognize the good providence of God, which has watched over us another year, and His manifested presence during this session of our Conference.

Resolved, That the first Episcopal visit of Bishop Cyrus D. Foss to our Conference has given us great pleasure and satisfaction, and we assure him that his wise counsels and brotherly kindness, his forcible and practical address to the class, and his masterly sermon have made his stay among us a great blessing and a genuine inspiration; And we will continue to pray that he may long be spared to the Church of Christ; and should he at any time in the future come to preside at our Conference again, he may expect a most hearty welcome.

Resolved, That we have listened with great pleasure to the eloquent addresses of the representatives of our several connectional enterprises, and we pledge these different interests our support.

Resolved, That our thanks are due the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, the Delaware, Lackawanna & Western Railroad Company, the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company, and the Erie Railroad Company for reduced rates to all in attendance at the Conference, and for the annual issue of clerical permits.

Resolved, That we thank the faithful and efficient secretaries, and the treasurer of our Conference, together with his assistants, for the able manner in which they have discharged their arduous and important duties.

Resolved, That we hereby express our high appreciation of the able addresses made by Hon. H. W. Palmer and Rev. Drs. Spencer and Payne, on the subject of Constitutional Amendment in this Commonwealth, and also of the very great importance of the cause which they so eloquently presented, as well as our earnest desire for its success.

WHEREAS, The Honesdale Church is embarrassed with its large debt of $10,000; and

WHEREAS, This Church must struggle on for several years unless it shall receive outside help; therefore

Resolved, That we invite the pastor of said Church to travel throughout the Conference and solicit aid privately, and we will do all we can to encourage him in his work.

Resolved, That we hereby extend to Revs. H. M. Crydenwise and W. J. Hill, pastors of the West Pittston and Pittston Methodist Episcopal Churches, and their people, and to the pastors and members of our sister Churches, who have kindly thrown open their homes for our entertainment, our sincere thanks for their hearty and generous hospitality.

DETAILED MISSIONARY REPORT.

MANLEY S. HARD, Gen'l Sec'y.
JOHN B. SWEET, Editor.

The editor is not responsible for any errors found in the body of these reports.

Brethren, we suggest that you make your reports on paper of a uniform width—say commercial note; that you write on but one side of your paper, only one column of figures on a page, aggregate sums less than fifty cents, and make your own totals.

DON'T NEGLECT YOUR COLD.

DR. JAYNE'S EXPECTORANT is an old-established, prompt, safe, and efficacious remedy for all coughs and colds, lung and bronchial affections. It relieves the pain arising from tightness of the chest or throat and removes difficulty of breathing; is a great promoter of expectoration and tends to subdue inflammation and strengthen the lungs and bronchia. Many hundreds of certificates like the following have been received and published in our Almanac from year to year, attesting its success in cases of

*Asthma, Bronchitis, Pleurisy,
Inflammation of the Lungs or Chest,
Spitting of Blood, Consumption,
Whooping Cough, Croup or Hives,
Coughs, Colds, and Hoarseness.*

WHAT IS SAID OF IT.

While Pastor of the Canton Church, N. J., some years ago, I temporarily lost my voice, and early last spring began to have the symptoms of losing it again, when I commenced using the Expectorant of Dr. Jayne. With the blessing of God, an improvement soon became apparent, and notwithstanding I have been much exposed since and have preached oftener than usual, yet my voice seems to be growing stronger. The good it has done and is doing me, leads me to recommend it for all Throat Complaints.—Rev. W. Pike, Lakeville, Washington Co., N. Y.

I have for many years past used in my own family and recommended it to the families of my congregation, as the best remedy I know of for Coughs, Colds and Incipient Consumption, Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and also Jayne's Sanative Pills as a remedy for Costiveness, Impurity of the Blood, Female Complaints, &c. My confidence in the great value of these medicines increases the longer I see them, and observe their health restoring effects.—Rev. Dr. Dowling, when Pastor of Berean Baptist Church, N. Y.

While performing duties incident to my position as Presiding Elder of the Illinois Conference of United Brethren, I was prostrated by a severe attack of Bronchitis that completely disabled me. Failing to get any better under medical treatment, my wife insisted on my trying Dr. Jayne's Expectorant. On my doing so but a short time elapsed before I was convinced of the healing power of this medicine, being entirely cured and enabled to turn to my labors.—Rev. J. Terrell, Perryville, Jefferson Co., Kansas.

During November last I took a very heavy cold, which settled on my lungs and produced much inflammation. For a while I thought I never would be any better, but would go into Consumption. Taking Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, I soon obtained relief, and now I am so unlike what I was, that it seems to me that I am almost alive from the dead. The Expectorant proves equally beneficial in cases of Croup, with which one of my children is occasionally troubled.—Rev. Wm. S. Barnart, of the N. J. Methodist Episcopal Conference.

I have used Dr. Jayne's Expectorant in my family for several years, and can truly say, I know of no medicine equal to it for checking and curing the frequent Coughs to which children are subject. I have realized great benefit from it myself, and others to whom I have recommended it have learned to value it. I always prescribe it to students under our care, when suffering from Coughs.—J. T. Edwards, Principal of Providence Conference Seminary, R. I.

For many years I was troubled with severe Asthma, notwithstanding all I could do for it. I finally tried Dr. Jayne's Expectorant, and four bottles of this remedy have brought about so wonderful a change in my disease, that I do not hesitate to recommend it heartily whenever I get the opportunity.—Emeretta Smith, Franklin Furnace, Scioto Co., Ohio.

Wesleyan University,

MIDDLETOWN, CONN.

This Institution offers to its undergraduate students three courses of study, each extending through four years, called, respectively, the Classical, the Latin-Scientific, and the Scientific Course, and conducting, respectively, to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Philosophy, and Bachelor of Science. In each of these courses the studies of the first two years are nearly all required; but in the last two years only about half the prescribed quota is required, the student selecting the remainder from a wide range of elective studies. It is believed that a sufficient amount is required in each of the great departments of study to afford a good foundation in general culture; while the large freedom of election in later years of the course allows the student to adapt his work to his own taste, talents and purposes. Post-graduate courses in the various departments of science and literature are offered to graduates of this and other colleges.

A well-equipped Astronomical Observatory, well-furnished Chemical, Physical, and Biological Laboratories, and a large and constantly increasing Museum of Natural History, afford facilities for a practical training in the methods of observation and research employed in the several sciences. The Library numbers over 37,000 volumes, and its steady increase is provided for by a special fund. There is a well-stocked Reading-Room and a Gymnasium.

The President of the College has authority to remit the charges for tuition in the case of students of good character who may need such pecuniary aid. In addition the College has forty-eight "Competitive Scholarships," varying in annual value from $50 to $155, which will be awarded to students according to class standing. These scholarships are divided among the classes equally. With these and other aids that the College directly or indirectly supplies, it is believed that no young person of ability, energy and moral worth need be deterred by poverty from undertaking the College course.

Ladies are admitted to the University on equal terms with gentlemen. Board and lodging are furnished to the ladies, under the supervision of a suitable matron in a comfortable and well-furnished house, adjacent to the College grounds.

Examinations for admission are held on the day after Commencement, and on the day before the beginning of the Fall Term. These days for the year 1889 will be, respectively, June 27 and September 11. For further information and catalogue address

INVESTMENT BANKERS & LOAN AGENTS,

TOPEKA, KANSAS.

MONEY INVESTED AT 7 AND 8 PER CENT. NET.

The desirability and reliability of first mortgage at good rates of interest, on real estate in Kansas, have been established beyond question through the watchful care and prudence of firms whose good judgment and financial standing are everywhere acknowledged. Therefore we shall only here briefly outline the superior methods we use in keeping our securities always at the head of the list in the matter of negotiating.

OUR FIRST MORTGAGE LOANS.

We make a specialty of negotiating loans on Real Estate, and our experience in all classes of securities during a period of fourteen years, enables us to offer the very best facilities to those desiring this class of securities. The value of Western Mortgage Loans depends in a great degree upon the care and judgment exercised by the agent who places the loan.

We loan only on first mortgage, and require :—

1. A written description, on our blanks for that purpose, of the property offered as security, signed and sworn to by the borrower, and value certified to by two disinterested parties.
2. An Abstract of Title, written up from the records by an experienced party, and certified to as to title, judgments, liens, taxes, etc.
3. This Abstract of Title, from the Government down to the present owner, is submitted to an experienced attorney, and no loan is made unless the title is approved by him.
4. A mortgage is taken and recorded, securing the amount of the loan, and interest thereon as specified in the semi-annual interest coupon notes, and binding the mortgagor to keep all taxes paid, and all other assessments that may be made against the property, and to keep the buildings insured in those cases where insurance is necessary, and in case of default in interest, taxes, or insurance, the mortgage may be foreclosed.
5. We keep a copy of the application on record in our office, but send the original, with the mortgage and notes, to the lender.
6. Before mailing the papers to lender, we enter the name of borrower, lender, and number of the property in our tax register, and every year examine the county records to see if taxes are paid, and enter a record of the same in our register.
7. The notes are made payable at the Banking House of John D. Knox & Co., Topeka, Kansas. It is the custom for lenders to send us the notes at least one month before due, the receipt of which is immediately acknowledged by us, and the notes are entered in our collection register, and notice given to the parties of the day the notes are due, and when collected we remit the amount, free of exchange, to the lender.

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS.

We issue certificates of deposit bearing the following rates :

6 months.....	5 per cent. per annum.

John S. Lampman

This cut is an accurate likeness of Dr. J. S. Lampman, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., whose name has become a household word, not only in the north-eastern part of his native state, but in the different states bordering on the old 'Keystone.' Dr. Lampman is without a doubt the most successful Oculist in this part of the United States. His success in curing the many diseases and accidents that the human eye is heir to is phenomenal and almost incredible. Where the most eminent oculists of the known world have failed, Dr. Lampman has succeeded. If it is possible for sight to be restored, Dr. Lampman can surely do the work.

Dr. Lampman's residence and Infirmary are located on Washington street, in the pleasantest part of the city, close to churches, depots, and the post-office. Here he daily treats hundreds of patients, accommodating such as wish board with rooms in his own residence, at a rate for treatment, board, etc., very low. Send for circular.

HAPPINESS TO THE WORLD.

Dr. Lampman is proprietor of several remedies for the cure of different diseases, that he sends out under guarantee of his personal honor. First comes his CELEBRATED HAIR PRODUCER AND UNIVERSAL NEURALGIA CURE, two wonderful remedies in one. This compound is a sure and swift alleviator of neuralgic pains in the head, refreshing and cooling in effect. Testimonials furnished showing that it will force a growth of hair if properly used.

Then we have Lampman's MAGIC KIDNEY AND LIVER CURE, a remedy unrivaled for the radical cure of every disease of the kidneys, or the liver.

Lampman's RHEUMATIC CURE is worthy of being brought to the notice of the numerous sufferers in our land.

Testimonials of cures gladly sent on application.

Address DR. J. S. LAMPMAN, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

TESTIMONIALS.

In March, 1885, I contracted a severe cold, which settled in my left eye, and being neglected, my sight began to fail. Dr. J. S. Lampman was the second oculist whom I called on for treatment. After he had treated me for about six weeks I was able to resume work as a draughtsman in the Ashley shops. This rapid improvement encouraged me to continue the treatment for five months longer, at the same time pursuing my business. My failing sight was not only restored, but my eyes were so much improved that I discarded eye-glasses, which I had been obliged to wear for a number of years. My disease was amaurosis, or failure of the optic nerve. I note these facts for the benefit of any who may be similarly afflicted, or who may suffer from any affection of the eyes.

CHARLES STREICHER, Ashley, Pa.

The best oculists pronounced my disease a very bad case of "granulated eyelids." In addition to my suffering I was at times so nearly blind that I could not walk out without being led. I commenced treatment March 5th, 1880, and was in the care of and treated by four of the most celebrated oculists of New York city and Newark, N. J. At intervals my eyes seemed to be improving, but soon relapsed. Every relapse made them worse. I went to Dr. J. S. Lampman, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 7th, 1884. Under his skillful treatment I continued to improve, and at the expiration of six months I was entirely cured and able to resume work. I will cheerfully furnish information to any one who may desire it.

A PROMINENT MAN.

DR. J. S. LAMPMAN—Dear Sir: After trying the most eminent eye and ear doctors in New York and Philadelphia for deafness, without success, I fortunately met a friend who recommended me to try you. At that time I could not hear conversation. After using your prescription eight weeks, while sitting in my house with closed doors, I could distinctly hear the court house clock, one mile distant, strike the hour of midnight. It will afford me pleasure to recommend any one similarly afflicted to visit "Lampman's Eye and Ear Infirmary," Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

WM. FRINK, Freight Agent, D., L. & W. R. R., Scranton, Pa.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE CURED.

I confidently recommend Dr. Lampman's Celebrated Kidney Medicine. I have been treated by different physicians, three of whom pronounced my case "Bright's Disease." Eleven days' treatment by Dr. Lampman completely cured me.

BARCLAY, Bradford Co., Pa., Oct. 18, 1880.

SOLOMON TALADAY.

A CASE OF TWENTY YEARS' STANDING CURED.

This is to certify that I have been taking Dr. J. S. Lampman's Kidney and Liver Cure, and have been entirely cured of kidney complaint of twenty years' standing. I can certify to its being the best medicine that I have ever used.

EAST MAUCH CHUNK, Pa., October, 1880.

G. H. LEWIS.

KINGSTON, Pa., Sept., 1880.—I have at different times used DR. LAMPMAN'S NEURALGIA CURE for neuralgic pains in the head, and found great relief and derived much benefit in its use.

L. C. DARTE.

KINGSTON, Pa., Sept., 1880.—I can with great pleasure recommend DR. LAMPMAN'S NEURALGIA CURE, it having afforded me great relief. I suffered a great deal with my head several years. Am now quite restored. The NEURALGIA CURE relieves me of the most severe headache in a short time.

MISS G. J. TUTTLE.

It is with pleasure that I recommend Dr. J. S. Lampman's Rheumatic Cure. I was disabled for five months with Inflammatory Rheumatism, and almost despaired of being cured. The various means employed proved ineffectual, until I began taking Dr. Lampman's Cure. In about two months I was entirely cured.

FRED. MEYER, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

AUBURN FOUR CORNERS, Susq. Co., March 10, 1886.

DR. LAMPMAN—Two years ago I was attacked with a severe catarrh, which grew worse until one nostril was a solid scab. I have used two bottles of your catarrh remedy and am almost well. I think one more bottle will make a radical cure. I recommend it to any one who is suffering from catarrh, and believe it is all it is represented to be.

AMPLE REAL ESTATE SECURITY.

TEN PER CENT INTEREST.

THE object of this association is to meet a want of those who cannot avail themselves of the benefit of local building and loan associations in the investment of their small savings. Owing to the high rate of interest in Colorado and other Western states, and the favorable opportunity for loaning money on good security and in making paying investments, especially in Denver real estate, this company offers investment bonds of \$100 each, to be paid up in nine years of thirty-six quarterly payments on the basis of $12\frac{1}{2}$ cents per week or \$6.50 per year. These bond certificates are issued for \$100 maturity value and multiples of \$100 and are intended for investors of small savings in any part of the United States. An investor who pays \$6.50 per year for nine years will pay into this association \$58.50, for which at the end of nine years, he receives \$100, the full face of his bond. For parties desiring to pay all cash, Certificates will be issued running two or more years as may be desired, with interest, payable annually at ten per cent. No money is in any way forfeited and all property of the association is held liable for bonds issued.
